

Open Letter to 'Mother' Russia

You turned your back on fellow slavs in the Balkans and then watched as Iraq, Libya and Eastern European nations and former allies were overtaken by the US/NATO -- salivating western hounds were well pleased. Had you stood ground in the Balkans and with other former allies you would not now be subject to America's overt interference in the Ukraine and on your borders.

Due to your treacherous abandonment in our greatest time of need and your open cowardice and lack of support we have subsequently thrown all our hopes (and support) on China.

We sincerely hope the Balkanisation of the Ukraine does not compromise you too much or cause you undue concern. Have a pleasant 'dinner' eating American shit, Russia -- we are really enjoying witnessing, 'what goes around, comes around!'

As for you Putin, you piece of traitorous dog shit, beware the Russian people and patriotic Russian military when they discover the Truth about you, and that all your corruption money is held in western banks in Europe and the Caribbean. We have never seen dead men spend money!
