for Snowden to tell us something we don't already know!

'Please allow me to introduce myself I'm a man of wealth and taste,' oops, Stones song - LOL - but seriously, take a good look at this guy, Snowden, the first thing he did was gain media notoriety which is anathema to authentic digital warriors and Uber hackers -- revealing one's identity is probably worse than killing your grandmother in these circles, so Snowden fails the first basic test of authenticity. The second giveaway was trying to secure asylum in China, surely that odd effort reeks of agent, as everyone including the HK Chinese are aware that China is no bastion of freedom and liberal rights, so big fail number two -- I would add that the Chinese are not as stupid as vacuum-headed yanks and had no intention of granting Snowden asylum or welcoming him into the fold.

Then there was the amazingly organised and indexed reams of printed material he gave Greenwald - hackers are not anal clerks but let's not waste more time with all the peripheral evidence and go straight to major indicators that Snowden is NOT what he claims to be!

What really sinks this agent is the announcement he made that he is in possession of highly compromising information on the USA but will not release it because it may harm America -- you know, the same America that slaughters civilians, invades weaker nations on fabricated pre-texts, carries out extra-judicial assassinations and passes laws to indefinitely detain without right to trial or to challenge your accuser -- give me a fuckin' totalitarian break! Would Manning, Hammond, Swartz or any other whistleblower/hacker of integrity withhold information that could stop this criminal nation in its tracks, not bloody likely? So dream on Greenwald, Assange and others, you have a cuckoo chick in your nest!

An open invitation exists to anyone that wishes to explain the above outrageous inconsistencies and anomalies.

What Snowden is attempting to do NOW at the SXSW conference is co-opt the digital underground by appealing to it to form an army against the man -- O really, we can't think of any other authentic group that has been doing this for decades.

So the USA is conducting illegal pan/global surveillance, Ed, ya kiddin' me!

Some people accuse me of paranoia, my response is simple, explain all those indicators and inconsistencies -- so far no takers.

The digital underground is of course the most feared group that criminal America faces as it is highly effective and invisible. How desperate is the man to know its internal workings and the identities of its members, something that no member is aware of for obvious reasons; so give it your best shot, Ed, you OBVIOUS AGENT/FRAUD!
