

A Few Home Truths

Consider the US backed Syrian intervention and the fact that US paid Muslims are fighting and killing sovereign Muslim nationals -- Islamic "brotherhood" is a MYTH, Muslims have been killing each other since that paedophile Mohammed made his heavily plagiarised initial religious mutterings and drew his sword against his own kind. Man has created every known (convenient) 'God' since recorded history began, FACT!

Bush, total fear - first shoe-throw

Is Islam a failed religion? You bet it is, but no more or less failed than 'brotherly love your neighbour, give away all your wealth,' Christianity, though both religions have buried in the ENSLAVING political bullshit and propaganda, a few lofty ideals. Only one Abrahamic religion is true to its sociopathic, homicidal, gold-loving, 'God,' and that is Judaism. Jehovah first formulated 'exceptionalism' and gave license to his true believers to kill, slaughter and STEAL from gentiles without a second thought -- in that sense Jehovah is a facsimile of man's dark side. Nevertheless, Jews have some integrity and allegiance to their 'God,' notwithstanding his very perverse and clearly sick character.

But that is not the focus of this short paper, 'real and surrealpolitik' is. Look no further than the Ukraine where Zionist controlled 'exceptional' America is currently making its latest megalomaniacal bid for world supremacy -- while it continues to kill countless innocent civilians, children and infants without a second thought! I would also mention the relatively new sport of shoe-throwing at corrupt, UNREPRESENTATIVE, puppet leaders, which seems to be gaining in popularity.

But first consider how Western bought puppet Putin PASSIVELY allowed Russian strategic borders to be compromised by US/NATO missile 'offence' systems -- a situation that would not have been tolerated for an instant by the leaders of the former Soviet Union; without exception they who would have mobilised their nuclear arsenals and readied their military for total war against Western expansionism/aggression, in response to any attempt to compromise borders or Russian security.

Today, however, notwithstanding the underhand deals and back-stabbing track record of the USA, Putin finds himself in a political pickle over the Ukraine, his military has asserted its role and duty -- enough inaction and passivity is enough. Watching puppet Putin's impotent assertions and mouse-like performances as he plays softly and attempts to reason with western sociopaths, is truly amusing.

Putin is stuck as western banks hold his millions in corruption money while Washington continues to invert every action/fact regarding their illegal intervention in the Ukraine. Independent analysts and commentators smile as psychopath Zbigniew 'it is easier to kill a million people today' Brzezinski and sociopath Madeleine 'half a million dead Iraqi children was worth it' Albright, offer their (clearly divorced from reality) advice on the Ukrainian intervention to CNN, which is a mainstream private propaganda outlet. What is particularly amusing is witnessing Brzezinski's attempts to "recognise"/legitimise a completely illegitimate, UNREPRESENTATIVE, un-elected Junta in Kiev! As Obama declared, let the Ukrainian people who know full well the character of the Nazi fascist thugs that have usurped a legitimate elected government, decide who they wish to rule their nation -- and I can assure puppet Obama that no sane Ukrainian would contemplate for an instant installing extremist mass murderers, by their own recent admission, into office! So Ziggy, if you want a legitimate government then the first thing you must do is to conduct FREE and FAIR elections without a hint of coercion or intimidation from neo-Nazi fascist thugs. But of course America would lose its tenuous grip on Kiev if it allowed the people to determine their own future.

Finally, the very interesting occurrence of (potentially 'explosive') shoe-throwing at puppet leaders -- Hillary 'we came, we saw, he died' Clinton, being the latest target. What people everywhere have noticed is the ease with which puppet leaders could be eliminated -- in fact it would be a duck shoot -- and that also applies to Wall Street rogues and ruling plutocrats! Be advised that you are all surviving on a vapour and clinging to a thread, it's only a matter of (a very short) time before you will all be hanging from light poles and office tower windows -- enjoy the view while you can!
