

U.S. Re-Colonises the Philippines

Filipinos worked very hard to gain independence from the U.S. in the early 90's but they clearly have not estimated the degree of corruption in the current government, which has signed a deal to allow the U.S. to (in effect) re-colonise the region as a military outpost. The consequences are simple and devastating, like the servile Australian government, the Filipino government has allowed the U.S. to make a PRIMARY NUCLEAR TARGET of the Philippines when it provokes war with China, as it has done with numerous other sovereign nations over the past decade -- a very revealing track record that only a FOOL would ignore.

However, it is also known that Filipinos have far more raw courage than average gutless Aussies and they should put up a very strong resistance to the military Imperialism of the USA.

The equation behind these American machinations is simple, the mega-banks and corporations that function through Wall St control Washington which in turn imposes itself on the corrupt compliant governments of the western world. However, if corrupt leaders imagine that their citizens would allow themselves to be compromised as nuclear targets unnecessarily, or for an insane American dream, they would be sorely deluded.

The current Australian imbecile, lackey PM was recently quoted to the following effect -- a very undisguised comment in defence of a needless purchase of 72 F-35 flying "lemon" American fighter jets: "You never know what's around the corner!"

To add clarification to that statement, a warmongering yank said (on the Oz media) that Australia requires these useless American aircraft to fight or engage in a "war with China!" Cop that! THE REALITY IS SIMPLE, OZ DOES NOT HAVE ANY PROBLEMS WHATSOEVER WITH CHINA, AMERICA DOES, BUT WASHINGTON IS READY TO SACRIFICE ANY STUPID SERVILE NATION IN ORDER TO REALISE ITS SICK AMBITION OF WORLD DOMINATION -- take note the free people of Oz and the Philippines that do not wish to be sacrificed for a psychopathic American delusion.
