

The Dunce 'Intellectual Left' of America

It's commentary and discourse revolving around the interventionist, propagandist, Imperial forces that control America and much of the western world, is endless, but do you think any of these so-called socially 'aware' intellectuals, commentators and analysts have woken to the OBVIOUS REALITY and have implemented or undertaken measures to EFFECTIVELY oppose, with similar or more advanced strategies/methods of POST MODERN WARFARE, the Imperialist forces they ENDLESSLY 'DESCRIBE?'

The US 'manufactured' crisis in the Ukraine is as good as any other recent example.

After billions of dollars were spent by US operatives fomenting uprisings since the failed (Madison Ave) 'colour' revolution, America finally, with the assistance of a sordid bunch of fascist extremists -- the preferred choice history illustrates -- succeeded in ousting a sitting national leader and taking by force the seat of government. However, the forces that are occupying government do not constitute a LEGITIMATE government by any stretch of the very flexible US imagination, notwithstanding the US propaganda apparatus endlessly refers to the neo-fascist usurpers as the 'government of the Ukraine' -- what a laugh -- but take note of the simple methodology rather than constantly shriek like hysterical women (sorry girls we know the men are actually worse) over the simplistic but highly effective CFR propaganda machine!

WE KNOW IT'S ALL A PACK OF PROPAGANDA, LIES AND FACTUAL INVERSIONS -- surely after years of publishing same it's no secret, B-U-T, as those years of publishing clearly indicate, commentary and analysis alone are not effective solutions in the POST MODERN WAR against ultra-right or fascist forces, that happen, as history bears witness, to be masters of PROPAGANDA WARFARE -- are you following my literal lead here, dunces?

Now, we all should know that propaganda alone does not achieve the desired results -- propaganda is only an effective COMPLIMENT to DIRECT ACTION and what do you demented dunces suppose the ultra-right is doing? They certainly are NOT sitting around with their thumbs up their arses engaged in endless commentary and discourse waiting for others to do the job, they are constantly engaged in DIRECT (criminal in their case) ACTION!

If it hasn't already sunk in, the ENTIRE world is in a state of constant post-modern warfare and guess who is winning at this moment?

Two major catastrophic failures ensure victory for the ultra-right, they are dismissal of the distasteful facts and the denial that the entire globe is in -- and has been since the neo-cons -- a state of CONSTANT post-modern WARFARE! And if that reality is KNOWN, as is claimed by the dunce American intellectual left, then the failure to engage, with superior or equal (SIMPLE) strategies and methodologies, is the direct cause of the appalling failure of the so-called 'left.'

Proof of the above is now required via the only available medium, history!

Why do you suppose social reformations of the 60's were successful? All alternative propaganda and ideological information was followed up with CONSTANT DIRECT ACTION in the form of demos and violent confrontations with fascist regulatory forces -- people were killed and bashed senseless on numerous occasions but the opposing onslaughts only increased in VIGOUR and momentum until a huge force of collective humanity marched on various capitals -- the mass media couldn't help itself, it was forced to cover these events as they were CONSTANT/relentless, PASSIONATE and VIGOROUS. Soon the entire WORLD was demonstrating against the MURDERING evil of CORPORATE fascism and authoritarian conservatism! It should also be noted that ignoring/denying or attempting to dismiss these revolutionary events was futile as they were by intention thrust into the faces of everyone and occupied the cultural consciousness for a decade.

Ruling elites were caught flat footed by the creativity, tactics and superior strategies of the people, but they were not about to give in. They immediately initiated a murderous assassination campaign targeting all leaders from the Presidency (JFK) to leaders of popular social uprisings (MLK) and even pop stars that delivered anti-authoritarian messages to audiences -- the killing was unprecedented in modern times and in a few murderous decades they re-established control of society; has anyone noticed that the USA today is virtually a locked-down police state -- genital groping, anyone?

OK, but should the same social forces that fought so passionately for social reform and real change/FREEDOM remain oppressed, NO! We were not born to EAT SHIT like the alienated, shit-eating, socially useless, X and Y generations.

We have learnt that we live in a war zone, though that war is very different to all previous wars. We have learnt that effective strategies must employ not only information or 'perception management' techniques but also DIRECT FUCKING ACTION -- can you imbos hear me? I know the X and Y gens can't, they are far too busy thinking about 'ME' and taking selfies to post on the CIA created social media, for Christ's fuckin' sake!

Creative solutions are ALWAYS AVAILABLE TO THOSE that do not share the subjugated, defeatist mentality of the X and Y generations -- yes, by God, the people are still the most powerful social force on the planet and nefarious ruling elites know it --- that is why, very soon, they will implement their 'clean sweep' strategy and track down every dissenting voice/person and eliminate them as they did decades past -- but we are too smart for them aren't we, you dumb fucks.

The SOLUTION for those that are unable to add 2+2 is DIRECT ACTION, drop them before they drop you! Veterans, trained snipers and other specialists, and there are many -- I apologise for making targets of you now but it must be stated openly and plainly -- are able to drop Zionist Bankers, Rothschilds, Rockefellers, Corporatist CEOs/Executives, Plutocrats and the TRAITOROUS puppet politicians that serve them as easy as going for a Sunday stroll.

However, the window of opportunity that this highly effective strategy presents is fast closing due to today's global surveillance technologies.

So, in conclusion, I would state that regardless of the measures that one 'man' makes, rest completely assured, another 'man' will break. Now go back to taking 'selfies', you mindless morons!

Endless commentary and discourse without DIRECT ACTION is a pathetic joke, isn't that right, Noam, Chris and the rest?
