

Oz Budget Comes Down on Heads of Suckers that Voted for Abbott

Abbott was a known elitist-serving quantity well before he was placed into office by Murdoch; he was known by various media nicknames, 'the slasher,' and 'errand boy' (for the plutocrats) to name only two; so wherefore this whining about the austerity budget he is UNJUSTIFIABLY imposing on the people -- there is more money circulating today than at any other time in recorded history, F-A-C-T! But who has the money, morons? Good question, ay?

Abbott and Hockey

Everyone with half a brain knew what Abbott was about before the election, he was going to impose a banker designed (for bankrupt Europe) AUSTERITY program on Oz and sell national assets to the private sector. Nonetheless, Oz remains the wealthiest nation on earth per capita of population BUT THAT WEALTH IS NOT SHARED WITH ITS RIGHTFUL OWNERS, IT IS RAPED FROM THE LAND AND PROFITS TAKEN OFFSHORE TO AVOID TAX. So don't whine now and tell me you weren't AWARE of the consequences for electing a minority-serving conservative government.

The problem here is NOT the well known quantity that Tony Abbott is or his treasonous, minority serving behaviour -- which was all pre-empted and posted here prior to his assuming office -- it is the Oz public for allowing themselves to be properly screwed by the likes of Hawke and Keating (and every successive gov since) who surrendered to the oligarchs and plutocrats by floating/gifting our CURRENCY/sovereignty to ROGUES on Wall St. and de-regulating the BANKING sector, which now has the lion's share of available wealth that remains on shore. The rest, which is considerable, is taken offshore by tax avoiding Transnational corporations -- never has this nation seen so much circulating money end up in so FEW hands!

The huge (UNPRECEDENTED) amount of money in circulation is appropriated by the TAX AVOIDING Transnationals and the de-regulated Banks; but what does the population do to remedy this intolerable situation, NOTHING! The debt-enslaved masses sit there with perplexed expressions, glazed eyes and their thumbs up their arses listening to PM Abbott and treasurer Hockey LYING through their teeth. ASK THEM HEAD ON about the ratio of money possession in this nation and watch them die in the arse! NAIL the treasonous bastards and threaten a plebiscite to REMOVE the Libs from office for breaking their word and pledges to the people -- it's a perfectly legal OPTION and is part of the democratic process; anyone that believes Hockey's LIE that the people must wait till the next election to assert their DEMOCRATIC PREROGATIVES is a dill and deserves to be lied to! Where does it say in the Constitution that politicians have a license to make promises (LIE) before an election and renege after an election, you dumb, useless fucks?

There is nothing new in social paralysis, indeed, the US cabal depends on it. The responsibility is the people's, the problem is the people's AND of course the SOLUTION rests with the PEOPLE -- you lame, miserable, born SLAVES!

Australia REMAINS the wealthiest per capita nation on the planet and the wine-imbibing, beer-swilling local population is about to have a European AUSTERITY budget imposed on it by lying, THIEVING, criminals via their political puppets -- for fuck's sake!

I leave you drongos with a relevant quote by Plato; "The price of apathy is to be ruled by evil men."
