

Oz PM Tony Abbott Commits Political Suicide

The huge irony here is that it was Abbott that helped Oz citizens adopt a ZERO TOLERANCE attitude to dishonest, lying politicians -- his CONSTANT attacks on predecessor, JuLIAR 'carbon tax, ignore the people' Gillard, clearly made a deep cultural impression; how HE imagined that Australians would tolerate HIS LYING and DECEPTION, which exceeds Gillard's by the order of 10, is beyond rational comprehension; however, conservatives are known to play American style bulldozer politics, just do it and worry about consequences later. Well, that tactic, which only works on mindless morons and AMERICANS does not cut it in Oz, as is clearly evident today.

Arrogant Abbott

Tony Abbott has effectively obliterated any hope he may have had of a second term and possibly any chance of completing a first term, as his destructive, un-Australian brand of politics is now widely KNOWN locally and internationally -- good work, Tony, you insular elitist serving dunce!

We need not labour the point but would caution the people that all lackey politicians serve the same interests, the Labor Party is just the flip-side of the same (Murdoch, Rinehart, Packer, Corporatist PLUTOCRACY record that is currently screeching the Liberal refrain. Recent history, Rupert Murdoch installing and deposing PMs at will, spells out the ugly reality.

The people are insulted and offended at Abbott's massive BETRAYAL and Abbott clearly deserves EVERYTHING he gets, I have even heard mention of "bullets;" such is the measure of JUSTIFIABLE OUTRAGE felt by a broad spectrum of Aussies over Abbott's betrayal and un-Australian values/behaviour -- it may be time to drop the smug, elitist, arrogant attitude and bite the reality bullet before it bites you, Tony!

However, the rational and effective cure/approach, based on the very well known conservative trait/disease of living according to someone else's formulation, dictates or prescription -- living in a 'box' in other words -- indicates that Abbott is incapable of change he would simply attempt more subterfuge and deception with the assistance of his plutocrat master Rupert Murdoch and his media outlets -- compare Oz media content constantly and see for yourself.

Rupert Murdoch is so easily dispatched I can hardly believe no-one has done it to date. Consider a few relevant facts. If Murdoch and his entire media empire disappeared overnight the world would not be worse off one iota! Murdoch contributes absolutely NOTHING POSITIVE to any society; he makes his PARASITIC living on propaganda, LIES and misinformation -- so you tell me, WHO NEEDS MURDOCH besides his puppets and slaves in politics? Fuckin' NO-ONE! In fact the world would be a much better place without him and his toxic, lying media! Furthermore, we have his measure and are capable of easily defeating this scumbag with a few regulations regarding partiality, integrity and the threat of nationalising his media if he breaches any regulation or engages in king making -- so give us a nudge Rupert, you just might end up losing the LOT!

It becomes evident that the PEOPLE must CONTINUE their push to REMOVE ABBOTT FROM OFFICE IMMEDIATELY; we must not accept any offer from proven lying scum or compromise our AUSTRALIAN CULTURAL VALUES in any way. We must pursue and remove all traces of corrupt political filth from Canberra and then clean out State government and show the WORLD how easy it is to RESTORE DEMOCRACY -- MAJORITY RULE -- and return government to the people by real representation. The nation's wealth would automatically return to the people and all future undertakings would be performed with the national interest as the first priority NOT corporate interests, as is the case today!

TAKE NOTE PLUTOCRATS and the TREASONOUS POLITICAL SCUM THAT SERVE THEM, are you reading this Tony, Bill and cronies? It may be advisable to quit politics while you're only a league behind, better your head on your shoulders than in a basket!
