

The Ruination of a Nation from Within

By abusing its privileged position of printing the world's default currency, the greenback, which is now as worthless as monopoly money, America created the circumstances for its own demise.

Instead of honouring its commitment to western nations that deposited their gold in US banks and repositories and supported the greenback, America abused the trust other nations invested in its unpegged currency. Furthermore, the US stole the gold kept in trust -- America was unable to return deposited bullion to Germany and other nations on request as that bullion had been sold to Asia by greedy bankers entrusted with its safe keeping.

The USA printed huge excesses of currency to use for bribes, wars and to corrupt foreign nations it targeted for plunder. It was a wild intoxicating spree while it lasted but the foundation upon which American wealth rested (dollar subscription) began to corrode until it finally collapsed -- but smart nations had already translated their dollar reserves into REAL assets like arable land commodities and essential infrastructure projects. Only vassal states and corrupted nations continued to exchange their precious resources for worthless dollars.

In the end, bankrupt and heavily indebted America was unable to sustain its war machine; illegally occupied nations soon defeated what was left of American demoralised forces fighting dishonourable corporate wars for profit.

In a desperate attempt to survive, criminal US ruling elites unsuccessfully attempted to provoke other superpowers into military conflict. The unsustainable industries of death and destruction upon which the American economy depended began to fail, no-one was buying. The world had learned well, the amazing spree of illegal acquisitions destruction and destabilisation was over.

Two choices remained for America, reform or economic and social implosion; suicidal America pathologically chose the later.

Unbridled GREED and CORRUPTION shattered the illusion of American wealth and power, and once shattered the illusion could never be re-constructed, it was over forever!

America, now a junkie to easy money, printed currency with abandon and the more it printed the weaker it became until all the King's horses and all the King's men couldn't put America back together again!

After rigging the table (above) they -- Global Reserve Zionist Banking Cartel -- robbed the world blind. Today they are attempting via their puppet politicians to impose an outrageous Austerity budget on Australia, which is possibly the world's most wealthy nation per capita. The problem is not debt, as they would have you believe, it is REVENUE shortfalls due to the drastic lowering of taxes on Transnationals, mega-Banks and other large corporations that are robbing the nation blind. It is simply the failure of puppet governments to tax the plutocrats that placed them in office that creates shortfalls in revenue and creates the need for government to borrow from the Reserve Banking Cartels -- make sense, does it?

Any economic historical analysis over the past century reveals that government income/revenue was far higher when government extracted a fair tax from those that BENEFITED MOST FROM THE NATION. Today, however, those that GAIN/benefit most are the least taxed and greatest TAX AVOIDERS, so austerity is imposed on ignorant and hapless populations. Try real DEMOCRACY, which means representative government not government by unrepresentative mega-wealthy minority elites. BOYCOTT all major owned parties and VOTE INDEPENDENT AT ALL TIMES, or be enslaved by avaricious minority CRIMINAL elites!
