Prior to viewing this mass media stunt, within the context of the privately owned AMERICAN mass media, try not to be an open mouthed CONSUMER of 'news' (propaganda) products tailored for specific purposes; think your way through this soft media event and try to see behind the fictions, misrepresentations and outright deceptions that are being offered to the 'open mouthed' global masses.

Exposes State Crime -- Self-confessed Agent

I would not attempt to sway anything you may conclude yourselves but it is incumbent on me to state one overriding factor -- at no stage to date has Snowden -- the so-called "whistleblower" -- released anything that has not been or is not widely known among independent analysts and international government agencies. Do not forget Snowden's initial attempt to dupe China, as if that amateurish American lure would have succeeded! China wrote the book on warfare and espionage two millennia ago when westerners were fucking their mother's and sister's in caves. The Chinese had a 'poetry writing' (an indication of a highly developed culture) civilisation when the west was working out what day it was?

Former spy, KGB agent and current puppet to the western plutocracy, V. Putin, recently declared that Snowden has revealed nothing new.

As human beings we have all been given the power of discrimination and it is absolutely imperative that we exercise that power if we wish to remain free and independent. You/we would all note that power elites constantly attack that faculty by subjecting 'consumers' to a constant barrage of hard and soft propaganda until some minds become sponges indiscriminately absorbing subtle messages and even gross advertising. It is a wonder average Americans are still able to think, or may be they cannot.

Do you think it strange that most successful US corporations now find it absolutely NECESSARY to head-hunt internationally for expertise, note the lack of nationals at the highest echelons of research and creative input in 'US' companies -- LOL? Clearly, the local population has been reduced to fast food (poison eating) mindless moron consumers that are viewed with contempt even by Obama the president of the USA, when he openly cracked a joke about 'genital groping' at airports at the people's expense! However, I have no sympathy for factory and cannon fodder, you dumbed-down, useless, rustic, moron fuck's! O shit, did I blow it again? But I tried so hard to maintain my cool,

Now with that said, there are exceptions to every rule and the exception to which I refer has become the yardstick for all TRUE whistleblowers; that person is of course brave Bradley/Chelsea Manning who is currently serving 35 years for EXPOSING the FACT that the US military/Washington is essentially a criminal organisation responsible for mass murder international theft and the first human holocaust of the new century in Iraq.

Manning knew and assessed his opponent well prior to taking it on, he then threw himself into the jaws of the beast and defeated it single-handed. His trial was possibly the greatest indictment of State corruption witnessed in the new century and America will NEVER LIVE IT DOWN! Analyse Manning in detail and you too will appreciate this person's extraordinary heroism, guile and mettle; I have been subjected to psychological and physical torture for extended periods not lasting weeks, however, Manning was subjected to sophisticated State torture, isolation, sleep deprivation, enforced nudity identity breakdown etc etc, for years and emerged unbroken and in tact, for fuck's sake -- you people have no idea what type of extraordinary character and heroism that requires!

So dear reader, think of YOUR cowardly negligence in allowing Manning to rot in jail (Mr Greenwald/Assange) while inept and very ordinary intel agents like Snowden assist government in intimidating the American masses with stories of 'blanket surveillance' -- LOL -- where is missing MH370, morons?

Greenwald and Assange are simply useful idiots and opportunists knowingly or unknowingly assisting the US government while REAL HEROES are forgotten in THESE times but will become the stuff of legends and folk songs in the not too distant FUTURE.

The challenge remains -- IF YOU HAVE SOMETHING COMPROMISING TO REVEAL ABOUT THE CRIMINALLY CORRUPT MASS MURDERING STATE THAT IS THE USA, THEN REVEAL IT EDWARD, OR GO FUCK YOURSELF, YOU AMATEUR NON-EVENT!
