Do not scoff or reject the proposition, after all, you accept rule by criminal minorities that demand trillions of taxpayer's dollars then refuse to repay it; you allow unrepresentative elites to treat you with the contempt you deserve by not rejecting the total fictive crap of the 9/11 commission ineptly trying to hide the truth about the inside job that 9/11 was; 9/11 remains the biggest botched false flag operation in modern history, and you think it impossible to climb rainbows!

You continue to believe the (CFR controlled) mass media spewing its lies and propaganda about the illegal Iraq invasion and allow those responsible for the mass murder of millions of innocents to mock justice by remaining at large; the coalition of willing criminals, Bush, Blair and Howard would be doing hard time for their crimes at any other time in history but you allow yourselves to be taken for granted and treated like shit by not insisting that the LAW be applied impartially to ALL citizens regardless of rank.

You ignore the plight of a young homosexual soldier jailed for 35 years for exposing Pentagon war and other crimes against humanity.

You refuse to accept the opinions of countless experts and specialists that say 9/11 was an OBVIOUS controlled demolition and that YOUR government is responsible for the murders of thousands of American citizens.

And today, against reason, reality and overwhelming evidence, you continue to swallow without critical analysis the rivers of lies that flow from the White House; it is now an open secret that the White House supports and employs, via its Saudi and Qatari allies, almost every Jihadi terrorist group in the world and YOU continue to imagine that climbing rainbows is impossible. The war on 'terror' is in effect a war on yourselves as the terrorists are clearly your allies.

After a decade of American instigated wars around the globe is the world more stable or a better place? The answer is the reality that faces you daily, it's a US made chaotic bloody mess and you continue to accept the oppression and LIES of your marauding criminal government.

However, as each day passes the Truth continues to spread to every corner of the globe, it spells ruination for America; and nature continues to send us rainbows to remind us that truth and integrity always prevail in the end.

Your perpetual war doctrine has failed.
Your propaganda and lies are failing
Your economy has failed
Your vassals and allies are having second thoughts.

As history bears witness time and again, the FREE world will soon unite to remove the evil pestilence from the face of the earth.

I could go on and on but you simply are not worth the trouble; I have a rainbow to climb.
