Who is responsible for the appalling film production that has enraged the global Muslim community? In a sense the answer is of secondary relevance; simply because the film primarily demonstrates that effective media PSYOP campaigns are in everyones' reach today.

Who would have thought that a relatively insignificant Coptic Christian could disrupt the entire planet with a tawdry video and create monumental headaches for Imperial superpowers?

It is not by accident that rage was vented on US targets, irrespective of who made the film; the Muslim backlash was justified for numerous reasons. The US and its allies indiscriminately murder INNOCENT Muslims almost daily in air strikes and Drone attacks. Indeed, there is no love lost; when in doubt, attack the world's leading civilian killing, terrorist nation (AMERICA) and you're sure to get it right!

I hope Washington has learnt that it doesn't have a monopoly on psychological warfare. Had that film been released with a long-term strategy and political plan the US wouldn't have known what hit it -- are you reading this, PEOPLE/China?

Indeed, the door is now WIDE OPEN for anyone to conduct a well planned operation against the most heinous threat to civilisation, law, order, peace, stability and morality in the world today -- AMERICA!

The following video interview from RT misses the major operational point; nevertheless, it does indicate that the US is clearly unable to control its extremist allies in the Muslim world today. Al-Qaeda, Salafis and other extremist groups have their own agendas.

Puppet Obama, recently boasted to the international media that America "achieved its 'objectives' in Libya -- regime change and resource theft -- without putting American troops on the ground." Who is laughing now, Barack, you short-sighted, puppet clown?

The US will always be the favoured target in any well planned PSYOP -- be aware and beware, you incompetent Washington DUNCES! It has been DEMONSTRATED to the WORLD that you are losing your grip! Bibi was right after all.

America now confronts the prospect of face-saving measures/attacks on Iran and North African nations, which are sure to put Washington back in 'control' -- in your Imperial dreams, America?

Watch out, there's another DESTABILISING psyop approaching - LOL!
