Really! The neo-con led USA effectively declared war on the entire world fifteen years ago and the loss of MH-17 is a casualty of that US declared war; or haven't YOU noticed the USA has been at constant war for the past 15 years?

Putin

YOU would also be aware, if you have a fully functional brain and are not one of the digitally captured, self-engrossed, 'ME' generation, that during the NATO/US 'humanitarian' slaughter, destruction and destabilisation of Libya, Gaddafi's weapons depots scattered around the country, which contained sophisticated weaponry INCLUDING numerous Russian made PORTABLE surface to air missiles (SAMS), were plundered by numerous terrorist groups fighting the proxy war for the US on the ground -- "we came, we saw, he died, ha, ha, har", Hillary!

Whether directly or indirectly, the USA, which has been responsible for all the wars over the past fifteen years, is the primary suspect. The strongest indicator in that regard is of course the reaction of the Australian leadership which the USA habitually uses to make accusations and other international statements it does not wish to make at a particular point in time. Consider also the integrity of Tony Abbott, who is the most reprehensible LIAR (proven) to have ever occupied high office. Abbott is a very well known quantity for analysts, he is a Jesuit trained ultra-conservative lackey and servant to authority -- so what do you have? A fuzzy but possible scenario that involves America as the prime suspect; if it has a CONSISTENT track record and walks like a duck it ain't no fuckin' ferret, morons!

Consider also the numerous terrorist splinter groups the USA is responsible for unleashing on the world, many have acquired sophisticated weapons from various other groups that plundered Libya and now Mosul -- what a tragic sequence of events uncle moron Sam is directly responsible for!

But this piece is for Vladimir, cuz we owe him one; he chose to ignore previous warnings that it would be a walk in the park for a handful of specialists (max. 5) to involve him in a major conflict, we have the ability to drag him into a major war at will -- you reading this Vladimir, you corrupt sell-out? You abandon Serbia at the highest conceivable cost, do you imagine Serbs are a bunch of weak, inbred Arab morons like the many mindless Muslim groups the USA utilises? You forget our tactics, culture and our history as superb guerrilla tacticians and fighters, we go straight to the top where it is easier for highly skilled operators to function.

I would add there are many more scenarios but I have covered those that are the most likely; there will be no direct evidence of the attack as Russian made SAMS are all over the world today and many groups have access; however, keep a tight focus on LYING US errand boy Tony Abbott and deconstruct every Washington press release written by morons that cannot find their own dicks to take a piss! Remember comrades, every LIE directly relates to the truth it attempts to hide. O, did I omit to mention that accurate analysis is also a walk in the park for Australian, Canadian and American Serbs that are completely integrated into their respective societies -- you arseholes will not know what hit you. We have been fighting for over a millennium and you imagine we have short memories. Have you ever tried to spend your money in hell?

Here's your legal shopping list, Putin; Kosovo remains an illegal appropriation under international law and U.S. base 'Bondsteel' in Kosovo is an affront to the Serbian nation, so how much do Y-O-U wish to pay for abandoning your slavic allies and the treachery you have displayed to all your allies, Vladimir -- China take note, it is simplicity itself?

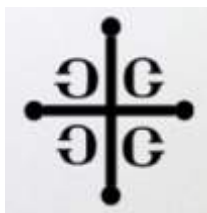

Never forget that we fought relentlessly against a sophisticated empire armed with the most advanced weaponry for over a thousand years and we PREVAILED -- we have already prevailed against YOU.
