Tony Abbott, Murdoch's latest puppet PM is known in Oz as an incompetent idiot and treacherous LIAR. However, since gaining office, by deception and duplicity, the "suppository" PM is gaining an international reputation as a disingenuous fool, dunce and offensive loudmouth, are you reading this Rupert?

Plutocrat Rupert Murdoch, passed it, isn't that right Wendi?

Abbott's latest insult is directed at Scotland for contemplating separation from England. In his profound stupidity Abbott stated in an interview for The Times that he could not see how the world would be benefited by an Independent Scotland -- not that it's any of his business!

But based on a known track record, Abbott appears to be running an errand for UK PM, David Cameron and the elites that own him, which are not pleased with a DEMOCRATIC vote for an independent Scotland. It seems that fragmenting the UK is not popular with plutocrats, conservatives and the powers that also imagine the masses are incapable of making decisions for themselves. But this same murderous ruling elite has no problem whatsoever breaking numerous international laws, illegally appropriating territories and fragmenting single sovereign nations, Yugoslavia for instance, now splintered into half a dozen powerless Statelettes! Feel free to call a hypocrite a hypocrite and a lying PM an idiot.

We are reminded of another Murdoch choice, John Howard, who openly stated (to the world) that if Barack Obama were to be elected president it would be disastrous for the USA! Howard may just be proven right but not for the reasons he gave at the time; that an explosion of terrorist activity would ensue, hmmm!

The point is this, Murdoch may be a successful media tycoon but he is a proven piss-poor judge of character; after supporting do-nothing, photo-op Kevin Rudd and insular, tin-eared, Juliar Gillard, his latest choice may just be the end of plutocrats appointing PMs in Australia.

So go for it, Tony, just be yourself and keep putting your boot in your stupid mouth, running errands for plutocrats is not as easy as you imagined, is it? Murdoch and Co will regret their choice soon enough -- an AUSTERITY budget for wealthy Australia, you people are completely insane!

To conclude, no harm was done to Scotland's 'yes' vote, which Abbott unintentionally boosted with his inane, "offensive, foolish" comments, not forgetting Abbott's lack of, as he puts it, "people skills," which one would think are essential for all politicians Mr Murdoch, you geriatric, divorced from reality, fool -- an obedient zealot does not a good leader make, nor did a tin-eared insular bitch or pathological narcissist; better luck next time, Rupert, if indeed the Oz masses will indulge you again!

Scotland's first minister Alex Salmond, expressed what intelligent people everywhere were thinking, who let this idiot loose, Mr Rupert Murdoch?

Abbott is far worse than he appears in this video; very few productions focus on Abbott's gross DISHONESTY and the contempt he displays toward the Australian people, which he INTENTIONALLY deceived to gain Office

Abbott's retarded tongue affectation clearly visible
