

Criminal States and the 'Back' Page

Media analyst and commentator of his time MM, famously said, "the medium is the message," indeed, but to qualify in today's terms, the message the digital medium transmits today is info FATIGUE, which is created by rapid variations of focus -- the CFR and ruling plutocracy go to great lengths to distract, obfuscate and propagandise until the unaware masses hardly know what day it is! The medium could hardly be clearer, the message it delivers today is simple, furious fluctuations of focus -- O darn, I alliterated in my pants again, but that didn't confuse or create media FATIGUE, did it?

We should all be aware that whatever is presented on the 'front page' is the last place the masses should fix their attention. While CIA trained (front page) ISIL, complete with demented Australian Jihadists and child-abused sons in tow, distract from Israeli war and other crimes against humanity committed in Gaza, we are left wondering why a strange group of persecuted religionists in Iraq warrants international intervention when numerous other more needy tragic groups -- in Africa and Asia -- are HABITUALLY ignored.

The medium has numbed focus to the extent that people have forgotten that the USA is directly responsible for the slaughter of over 1.5 million civilians in ILLEGALLY invaded Iraq and that regime change woefully failed in Syria and resource theft and corridors failed in Ukraine, so, we are left looking at two Malaysian airliners that have met with foul play.

Australia's involvement is always a good indicator though not as is given; useful idiot Tony Abbott was quick to steer searches of MH-370 to the Southern Oceans where locating anything would be impossible, notwithstanding that if Abbott says 'white' then black is surely the answer. Notice how quick Abbott was to accuse Putin of shooting down Malaysian airliner MH-17 without the slightest shred of evidence; Abbott based his accusation on orders from Washington. And using the above mentioned method we surely know that Putin is innocent, as not long after imbecile Abbott's accusation, hard evidence indicates that Kiev downed the hapless aircraft, oops, another failure, quick another absurd distracting headline!

But it is not as complicated as it is made out to be; it is abundantly clear that numerous 'fails' and crimes are being committed 'behind' the headlines by the usual gangster States, America and Israel -- but don't tell anyone or these clearly criminal States may be held accountable by a clear thinking aware public.

We would also indicate that decoding events would be much more difficult if not for Washington's habitual use of lackey Oz leaders ordered to run with the latest Washington LIE -- and you thought Abbott was of no practical use.

Every lie unintentionally reveals that which it hopes to hide, MM didn't say that!

Another wanted or unwanted consequence of media fatigue is that people become attracted to what they perceive as stable havens, such as fascism, Ukraine, and authoritarian religion, Islamic Jihad and U.S. fundamentalist Christianity. In a sense the myopism of fascist Islam becomes attractive to people subjected to the instability and chaos of intentionally induced information fatigue -- are you reading this Murdoch, you shallow dunce.
