

ISIS, “Not a Direct Threat” - Joint Chiefs - WHAT!

international / prose / post

The red carpet facilitated American proxy fighters variously known as ISIS, ISIL, IS and any other name intelligence agencies care to create in future, has been deemed as ‘no threat’ to the USA and so is allowed to carry on redrawing Middle Eastern boundaries and regions -- all according to western plans. ISIS is currently poised to take the entire Syrian province of Rakka. In view of PREVIOUS no-threat interventions -- dozens in Africa -- and illegal territorial thefts in the fragmented no-threat Balkans, now hosting the largest US military base in STOLEN province, Kosovo; ‘no direct threat’ just doesn’t cut it! No direct threat Libya also proves the point; the latest mindless Pentagon/White House claims clearly amount to a croc of shit! Would we expect any different from Corporate serving Washington puppets DUPING inbred Muslims into doing their dirty work?

Violent, inbred, duped morons, ISIS

Joint strikes by Israel and the USA would completely annihilate the pseudo Islamic State and its puppet leaders in a day or two but watch both nations allow their paid-for fighters to advance according to plan.

Therefore, in the current climate of transparent interventions and proxy fighting groups, we do not find it surprising that Corporate controlled America would interfere with the pre-planned advances of its proxy fighting group in Syria and Iraq. Consider also how uncharacteristically quiet Israel is regarding the largest most successful terrorist group to emerge in the world today; in the circumstances we should be deafened by shrill Jewish screams of a clear and present danger/threat to Israel, but not a word, so work it out for yourselves geniuses, I’m sick of dealing with morons with 24 hour memory spans. You see dummies, recent history has brought the reality of the situation to the surface. Now go do some research on who trained (CIA), where they were trained (Jordan and Turkey) and who supplied arms (Saudi, Qatar) and finances (Saudi, Qatar, USA) and supports ISIS even as I write this piece.

Estimates of ISIS fighter numbers very wildly from ten to forty thousand men and boys but whatever the real number of fighters it certainly is multiples higher than the much ‘feared’ previous CIA creation, ‘al-Qaeda,’ remember them (?) that only numbered three hundred and fifty fighters (US military count) so go figure US logic for yourselves, then resume playing your banjos -- for fuck’s fuckin' sake!

This current ISIS ruse is so bloody obvious those that do not see it deserve everything they get, rendition, indefinite incarceration on suspicion, para-military police action/lockdowns and much more demeaning genital groping at airports.

I hope this digital record is discovered in the future in order for the aware and civilised of that time to have a very accurate view of the tragic global consciousness of the 21st century!
