

Organised Crime is Running the World

by judd Friday, Nov 7 2014, 9:25am

international / prose / post

Far fetched, the mass media herd would say -- to be expected. However, for those that are able to see past the propaganda, distractions, assaults on language and meaning, there is no doubt.,

The latest example, which received minimal coverage, was the ICC overruling charges brought against Israel for the murder of nine volunteer members of an anti-blockade vessel which was boarded by Israeli special forces in order to maintain the outrageous blockade of Gaza, which Israel has tranformed into an open air concentration camp.

Regardless of the numerous breaches of criminal law, humanitarian conventions and UN human rights charters that western powers, especially NATO, Israel and the USA, commit daily, the clearly partial court seems only able to prosecute the enemies of the above powers -- check the facts yourself. If a member of the US, Israeli or NATO military alliance has serious war crimes or other crimes against humanity charges brought against them the ICC does not want to know, and if they are forced by circumstances to pursue a member of the allied or proxy fighter (KLA) terrorist forces - to cite one early example -- they are either found not guilty or are freed after only a brief period in detention regardless of the length of their sentences. In the stolen Serbian province of Kosovo for example allied forces installed a known terrorist and murderer, Hasim Thaci, who was wanted by Interpol, as prime minister!

But it's really no surprise that criminals prefer to work with each other rather than numerous moderate Kosovars, which have since been murdered by Thaci. The installed government of Kosovo is a gangster government, which was cited by Carla del Ponte for the organ harvesting of civilian Serbs rounded up by the criminal 'government;' but of course no action was taken against the forces the US installed in power. Outrages like this were once only found in absurd novels like Alice in Wonderland but no more, today these outrageous events/circumstances are reality.

Need I mention the absurdist trial of Chelsea (Bradley) Manning in which the criminally accused Pentagon sat in judgement of the accuser, Manning -- the outcome was assured!

Criminal governments use their power to corrupt the judiciary and other regulatory institutions world-wide, which has resulted in these 'governments' now working in concert to implement policies that are anything but beneficial for local populations.

So what's new as this tragic series of events has been occurring for decades without any real opposition from the most powerful social force in existence, the national or indeed the global majority/population. If the moral majority fails to act and restore representative government and purge corrupt institutions would you be surprised that criminals are now running rampant and working in concert consolidating power and ensuring that any opposition is easily dealt with using a raft of new oppressive 'laws' all designed to erode our hard won legal rights and repress investigative journalists, who were once the guard dogs of democracy?

So what have you been preoccupied with while the world goes to hell in a hand-basket before your very eyes? Don't tell me I know, struggling with imposed debt slavery, a favourite means of social control employed by the criminal elite.

<http://www.informationclearinghouse.info/article40164.htm>

Jungle Drum Prose/Poetry. <http://jungledrum.lingama.net/news/story-1334.html>