An affiliate site -- up for seven years -- only received poetry searches after Google was hauled before anti-trust authorities in Europe. And that was short-lived, the site was soon backgrounded again after Google settled its anti-trust dispute.

Impartial searches from Google could be a lost cause these days, as 'Bilderberg' Google is in bed with ruling plutocrats and is openly in business partnership with the CIA.

This company has completely betrayed our trust, it certainly is NOT an impartial search engine. Google actively engages in data manipulation, illegal data appropriation and data suppression (including poetry) that it deems not in the best interests of ruling criminal elites.

Google has clearly betrayed its moral, cultural and social obligations/responsibilities by persistently manipulating search outcomes.

It should be noted that any person, company or concern that finds poetry problematic is not to be trusted, period.

"Poetry fettered, fetters the human race. Nations are destroyed or flourish in proportion as their poetry, painting, and music are destroyed or flourish." -- William Blake
