

The Silence of Netanyahu

by darcy Tuesday, Nov 11 2014, 7:08pm

international / prose / post

Sometimes silence speaks much louder than words particularly with regard to our usually verbose political leaders. So what gives with Israel, which usually screams like a stuck pig at even a hint of threat to Israel?

Could it be that they approve or indeed support what the powers are attempting to sell the world as a heinous threat to civilisation. Notice also Obama's initial arm-chair response which allowed ISIL to make huge territorial gains in the Middle East almost overnight -- the entire scenario reeks of intrigue. Never forget that every lie refers directly to the truth it attempts to hide!

A former leading member of al-Qaeda is interviewed regarding the new bogey man, ISIL, and his words have a certain ring of authenticity to them if indeed the known and historically recorded globalist plan is to divide Iraq and Syria into sectarian regions and install puppet regimes in order to facilitate the appropriation of valuable resources and secure vital pipelines.

Make up your own minds after viewing the video and sourcing documentation (linked).

Whatever you conclude one thing has become vividly clear, ISIL is a western created, trained and Saudi supported proxy fighting group which is given huge corporate media attention in order to dupe gullible fanatic Muslims (useful idiots) into joining its ranks to create an international 'real' threat to civilisation, all in order to justify the wholesale theft of territory and resources. We shouldn't forget that the USA favours proxy fighting groups to do their dirty work on the ground and then stabs them in the back after their usefulness/use-by date has expired.

<http://consortiumnews.com/2014/11/05/the-silence-of-the-israelis-on-isis/>