

Sydney Hostage Crisis Reeks -- UPDATE, SIEGE ENDS

A hostage crisis is unfolding in Sydney's CBD as I write, however, informed Australians would not forget the lies conservative PM John Howard told Australia regarding the criminal invasion of Iraq which was based on total FABRICATIONS and LIES. The SMH reports that the flag displayed on the cafe is not an ISIL flag, as they are difficult to obtain. It is also known that real extremist jihadists do not take hostages in similar circumstances, they act immediately according to ISIL instructions making a bloody statement, they also pursue martyrdom, notwithstanding that the Oz Islamic community has ample disillusioned youth and numerous 'useful idiots' in its ranks.

Which one is Abbott?

Analysts are aware that every lie refers directly to the truth it wishes to hide, what worries me is that Abbott's popularity has bottomed and the TIMING of this hostage crisis couldn't be more useful to Abbott to distract the public away from his appalling leadership and trashed reputation. Abbott, is a known criminal fraud and liar and conservatives are known to arrange things to manage public perceptions and instill fear -- we will see how it pans out. The linked Herald article is worth a read.

If indeed the crisis is the result of 'useful idiot Islamic youth' (Boston bombing scenario) Oz could squarely place all responsibility on the Australian conservative party for supporting America's clearly criminal wars and horrific civilian killing spree in many regions around the world. America is the leading civilian killing nation in the world today.

Australians are educated and culturally not easily duped like Americans -- we shall see, the truth will emerge after the crisis ends. And there is no escaping that fact.

UPDATE:

It has been confirmed that at least three hostages have escaped or have been released, which conveniently placed media cameras have captured on video.

The media beat-up is in overdrive and local political bullshit is flying thick and fast, which may indicate a staged operation. It should be remembered that only a few decades past REAL Croatian terrorists, now allies of the US, were engaged in a bombing campaign in George Street Sydney, I am talking real bomb detonations in central Sydney, and no empathetic propaganda remarks were forthcoming from Washington, Canada or other US vassal States.

The situation -- no deaths -- and over-the-top media overkill have sent the odour of this 'event' to the ceiling. We will keep you posted.

UPDATE II:

Australian media has revealed, after their international counterparts, that the gunman is a demented Iranian "self-styled cleric," Man Haron Monis, who is extremely familiar to police who have been monitoring his movements for some time. The armed cleric is considered desperate and unstable as he is facing 40 charges for various offences including sexual assault and accessory to the murder of his ex-wife -- this latest revelation does not augur well for the hostages as the unstable gunman is clearly facing a long term in jail; it has also been reported that his short stays in Australian prisons to date were characterised by excrement smeared all over his cell and other methods of psychological intimidation -- clearly Monis has reached the end of his tether.

As a result numerous firetrucks and a large number of ambulances have been moved into the police exclusion zone, a very alarming development as normal procedure is to eliminate unstable gunmen usually in the early a.m. hours though police have gone to extraordinary lengths to state that they will negotiate for days if necessary but circumstances and reality dictate otherwise. It is highly likely that police will follow standard procedure and kill the demented and clearly unstable gunman -- POLICE AND POSSIBLY SAS MILITARY HAVE JUST OPENED FIRE (2:05am local time) AND STORMED THE CAFE, WHICH WAS PREDICTABLE -- WE ONLY HOPE THAT CASUALTIES HAVE BEEN MINIMISED BUT JUDGING FROM THE LIVE COVERAGE THAT IS UNLIKELY.

A very sad but predictable end to this AVOIDABLE hostage crisis and our hearts go out to any of the hostages that have been harmed or killed and to their families. Ambulance personnel are now entering the premises and we will keep you posted on further tragic developments.

NSW Police have confirmed three dead, including the gunman, and four injured with non-life-threatening wounds.

We need no further elaboration to arrive at our conclusions as follows:

CONCLUSION

The elitist globalist agenda to manage western societies with division, fear and terror HAS FAILED to shake Australia. The clearly managed use of a known criminal (useful idiot) under surveillance by the police HAS FAILED.

During the hostage crisis Australians launched a concerted social media campaign in solidarity with the local Muslim community to the effect, that "I'll ride with you," on twitter. One woman who noticed a Muslim woman remove her hijab on a train, volunteered to accompany the frightened woman until she felt safe, is but one example of the unshakable Oz character -- this very traditional and characteristically Oz gesture is in stark contrast to ignorant gullible Americans who not only vilify and demonise Muslims but cannot distinguish between Indian Sikh headgear and Muslim caps when they engage in the mass murder of INNOCENT civilians. The Muslim community is like any other community in that the vast majority are good productive citizens only interested in peaceful co-existence, only a small percentage engage in extremist criminal activity which the Murdoch press is ever ready to highlight and exaggerate.

It is unfortunate that Oz is currently governed by globalist lackey lying fraud, Tony Abbott and his team of servile conservatives; however, the reaction of average Aussies should strike fear into the black hearts of all minority serving political puppets and the sooner they realise they have failed to advance the globalist agenda of fear and terror and impose evermore constrictive policies on the population the more chances they have to avoid being jailed for life.

The very brief reporting of the good will of average Australian citizens was only reported on the much loved ABC, which Murdoch wishes to eliminate or at the very least reduce to insignificance -- choke on it Rupert, and report your gross failures to your CFR masters.

The reality that mass murdering evil elites face is that they would be forced to detonate a nuclear device before Oz society is shaken. So face reality, the grip you have on America, the UK and western Europe does not extend to Australia -- we urge the world to follow our mateship, camaraderie and humanitarian lead to live in unity and harmony with all people.

The population is currently able to marvel at the unconvincing, shuffling and lying faces of politicians and police officials attempting to advance minority agendas and cover their criminal tracks -- you criminal scumbags have a lot to explain and answer for regarding how a person very well known and monitored by police was able to launch this despicable attack! Good luck trying and lying as your faces and body language cannot lie.

ADDENDUM:

Regarding post siege political opportunism and the role of the privately owned corporate mass media.

One of my former university lecturers, a professor in mass media and mass communication, began one lecture with an analogy to Alzheimer's disease. Referring to memory loss, he made a general comment that the masses have NO MEMORY except what the mass media implants. I hope that covers the disgraceful emotive propaganda, misinformation, outright lies and political opportunism that is now occurring in Australia, particularly regarding the failure of authorities to prevent a demented violent individual, who was very well known to police and security agencies, from conducting his despicable attack on Oz society.

The above particularly applies to KNOWN LYING FRAUD Tony Abbott, who couldn't be happier that this clearly badly managed 'event' has distracted from his cruel social policies and trashed reputation.
