

What Exactly is Terrorist “Chatter,” Mr Abbott?

Pathological LIAR, criminal FRAUD and duplicitous scoundrel, Tony Abbott, is milking the Martin Place siege for all it's worth to distract the public away from his appalling performance as PM and his universally despised social policies. But let's take stock of reality shall we, something politicians are loath to do for obvious reasons.

Fraud and dunce, Tony Abbott

Firstly, we already know that the terrorist alert was placed on “high” prior to the ‘successful’ (from a terrorist POV) attack on the Lindt cafe -- fat lot of good that did Australians with a bunch of buffoons, clowns and lackeys populating our security agencies and policing organisations? It has also recently been revealed by Abbott that Monis was taken off the ‘watch list’ just prior to the attack -- could that mean that Abbott and ilk decided to use this ‘useful idiot’ for their own political purposes, many Aussies are now of that opinion?

It appears our agencies and police did everything in their power to facilitate the attack to the point of ignoring a tip-off 48 hours prior to the attack! Even if Monis, a known serious offender, was taken off the watch list surely that alert should have woken our genius police and security agencies but no such occurrence, Monis was virtually handed a passport to commit a criminal act of terror by our regulatory agencies and police, which it should be noted are usually very slow to respond to emergencies of any kind, just ask any Australian citizen for verification of that FACT! However, in this instance police, fully prepared, reacted almost instantaneously in HUGE numbers with military SAS specialists to the ‘event’; now tell me that response was not the result of ‘PRIOR KNOWLEDGE,’ ‘you transparent, lying clowns -- as more details emerge more real evidence grows to support the ‘staged event’ hypothesis.

Now to Abbott’s continued campaign of political opportunism regarding the non-specific term “chatter.”

Police and agencies are armed with the most advanced surveillance technologies known to humanity but they continue to be vague and non-specific, how so? Police once relied on their expertise in detective work to round up and arrest Croatian terrorists conducting a real bombing campaign in George Street central Sydney a few decades past, so let's get real, Mr Abbott, before the entire globalist orchestrated scam is blown wide open -- that advice also applies to the buffoons in our agencies and police that blindly follow Washington's inept and compromising lead. Australia, as former PM Malcolm Fraser has recently stated, is another planet away from the ignorant, banjoplaying, war-mongering USA.

Abbott, in character, even let it slip on air that the “chatter” indicated a real terrorist threat then immediately retracted that statement with clumsy obfuscations.

So the only reasonable conclusion to all this American style social “perception management” is that the entire charade is exactly that, a CHARADE to further Abbott’s political ambitions, distract the public away from his appalling performance as a national leader and to background his despised and grossly unfair social policies. Who are you trying to kid, Mr Abbott? Oh! I should have known, members of the Liberal Party, shuffling your front bench amounts to arranging chairs on the Titanic, as it is CLEAR that YOU are the PROBLEM!

The sooner the Australian people place Abbott on trial for obvious calculated fraud, lies and deceit in relation to stealing the office of PM, the sooner Oz will return to stability, safety and sanity.

I would also add that a good statesman would be able to capitalise on our now critical geopolitical location in the Southern Asian region but both major parties have made a gift of our clear advantage to the inept USA, which is in RAPID decline as a world economic power. Good work, you hopeless Canberra DUNCES!

As for you Mr Abbott, keep up the ‘good work,’ you are proving easier to dispatch than Rudd and Gillard put together. Wake up Liberal Party!
