

Christmas and the Hypocritical Reality of 'Christians'

Either you believe or you do not

The messages below are taken directly from the mouth of the Christian Saviour and other New Testament writers as recorded in the NT. We have little need for commentary as the core message couldn't be clearer.

Matthew 6:

28 And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin:

29 And yet I say unto you, That even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

30 Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to day is, and to morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?

31 Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed?

32 (For after all these things do the Gentiles seek:) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things.

33 But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.

34 Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

Matthew 19:

21 Jesus said unto him, If thou wilt be perfect, go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come and follow me.

22 But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions.

23 Then said Jesus unto his disciples, Verily I say unto you, That a rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven.

24 And again I say unto you, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

1 Timothy 6:

9 But they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition.

10 For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

11 But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness.

The Vatican and other 'Christian' institutions would do well to follow the teachings of their Saviour -- either you believe or you do not but please save the bullshit for Mammon.

A very Holy and happy Christmas to the few REAL practicing Christians living in the world today.

We are aware of the many contrary arguments feeble-minded Christians offer, however, if the world does not allow you to live a Christian life then reform it, as indeed Jesus Christ reformed the society in which he lived. We also recall another passage stating that He, Jesus Christ, was the example/blue print for all followers on how to live life, you reprehensible HYPOCRITES! Now quick, turn on your TVs and continue in hypocrisy, delusion and denial.
