

Current Media Manipulation and 'Perception Management'

The mass media (MM) in Oz and the UK is currently focusing on the 10th anniversary of the Indian Ocean tsunami which killed over two hundred thousand souls. We do not wish to diminish the tragedy of this event, however, the MM has deliberately never covered the 1.3 million innocent souls murdered by NATO and the US in Iraq -- a now proven illegal military intervention based on fabrications and LIES.

The tsunami displaced 1.2 million souls but the illegal Iraq intervention displaced 5 million souls -- now I ask you which is the greater tragedy? Why is the MM so averse to focusing on events that compromise western governments and the global elite that control them? Answer, the MM is the privately owned propaganda arm of the nefarious global elite. So, when you see the MM saturating the air waves or focusing on any issue whatever, think immediately of what is not being covered, the TRUTH relating to the criminals that have hijacked our democracies, for instance. To this day, the principals, who are known to the world, involved in the first human holocaust of the 21st century have not been prosecuted for their inhuman, heinous and overtly criminal actions.

Since the privately owned MM has gained a firm foothold on information, activists have noticed how their public campaigns and demonstrations barely rate a mention. Do not be disheartened, we live in different times with different challenges; imagine if you will, a PERSISTENT campaign to have government and former government officials placed on trial for mass murder, torture and a host of other bloodthirsty crimes, which they committed, and continue to commit almost daily at the behest of large energy corporations and banks, the real (shadow) government of the USA and its vassals around the world.

And so the REAL news is actively and PERSISTENTLY created or suppressed by those that would seek real JUSTICE, liberty and freedom and those that seek to enslave the masses and keep the majority blind to the Truth.

If the MM continually ignores the push for justice, persistence and ever more passionate INSISTENCE for social justice would expose these media organisations (and others) for what they are -- do not be too quick forget that over half a million Latinos blocked the Streets of LA in the recent past and FORCED the then government to re-consider its immigration policies. This event was organised almost overnight using only SMS or 'texting!'

Of course I do not expect a positive response from today's digitally enslaved generations, which are now under complete mind/perception management, however, HISTORY requires that this short analysis be published and recorded for posterity.

Notice how the major life threatening issues of our time, and there are many, are never given a proper treatment in CONTEXT. The Climate change issue for instance is an attempt to implement new taxes NOT accept the inevitable consequences of run-away, irreversible, climate catastrophe -- the media and government should be focusing on survival mechanisms NOT new taxes, but of course the wealthy elites always think in terms of money and profit not humanity, which they consider an expendable resource -- history bears witness to every claim made in this short document.

O, excuse me, Miley Cyrus is shaking her arse and poking her imbecilic tongue out on TV and gaining widespread (media) attention -- but don't worry, you'll all be famous soon, as one of the MASSIVE number of blind, gullible, dopes that died in future wars, famines, social collapse and climate catastrophe.

It is not propaganda that sets you free, it is TRUTH -- your disregard of Truth today sentences you and your loved ones' to death, what provisions are being developed by YOUR government to mitigate the effects of climate catastrophe and ensure the best possible survival outcomes for your society/nation?

Happy new year!
