

Stellar Winds

by umberto Sunday, Dec 28 2014, 10:52am

international / poetry / post

it flows
irresistibly
sometimes like wisps
and fine webs
that wrap themselves
around my brain
at other times
like the entire ocean of existence but it always flows

mighty rivers are mere trickles in comparison
it flows at times like the cosmos itself at other times like the stellar wind do ur evil best against nature's mighty force for justice, truth, light -- u have already been defeated as there is no defence
