

Mass Media Apologetics for the OBVIOUS failures of intel Agencies and NSA pan-Surveillance

It is becoming very clear that the Paris 'terrorist' event was staged and almost as badly bungled as the infamous USS Liberty and 9/11 events -- particularly with the latest video release of the so-called 'terrorists' shooting a defenceless supine police officer in the head, which is clearly a complete fabrication as the video exposes. No doubt more proof of the nefarious influence of the CIA/MOSSAD will soon surface as this event reeked from the start -- principally because of media saturation of a SINGLE scripted story/message, you inept pathetic dunces! It becomes readily apparent that these dunces are their own worst enemy, as their tragic bungled attempts to manage society are now exposed almost immediately after they blow it -- very soon one of the operatives will be apprehended by citizens and the lid will come off the entire sick, globalist agenda, you can back it in!

But I would today like to focus on the ineffectiveness of social monitoring and pan-surveillance and how all the hype delivered by active agent, Ed Snowden, is nothing more than that, hype and a psychological campaign to inculcate fear into the population and make them more pliable to police intrusions and accepting of further losses of rights and privileges.

We stated from the outset that Assange and Greenwald were/are duped useful idiots and that Snowden is an ACTIVE agent known both to Russian and Chinese agencies, which Snowden failed miserably to dupe. Shortly after that exposure Snowden himself came right out with it in a feeble video attempt to deflect. But the real issue -- that dumbarse agencies must monitor the entire globe to prevent those damned terrorist attacks -- is NOW COMPLETELY EXPOSED as a tragic joke. REALITY clearly highlights the TRUTH of the matter! It is supremely amusing watching CNN and other mass media outlets making feeble attempts to justify why pan-surveillance and operational monitoring ALWAYS fails to prevent attacks, from Boston, Sydney to Paris -- so what's the point of continuing the criminal charade of pan-surveillance and attempting to use these events as excuses for evermore oppressive social containment laws? Blind Freddy can see they do not work. [Btw, I'm having a hilarious time of this as the agencies and their globalist masters are attempting to have their cake and eat it too!]

They will ALL come to learn that REALITY poses the biggest problem for propagandists and paid packaged media liars and that PAN-SURVEILLANCE IS A COMPLETE FAILURE, as was always known but is now readily apparent to ALL.

The entire western media is currently making feeble excuses that 'terrorists' cannot be stopped even if they are on watch lists and known to agencies -- well, the short RESPONSE IS, WHY BOTHER with the intrusive pan-surveillance of citizens if its all so tragically ineffective? Either demonstrate that it works (take the bait, dunces) or CEASE pan surveillance of citizens -- WE DEMAND IT! Your dicks are hanging out!

Now a warning to the evil elites and their fifth rate army of 'experts,' which are nothing more than a bunch of violent bungling clowns.

We meant what we stated earlier about apprehending one of your operatives, as it is you that are being monitored constantly and you have just opened the gates to the castle -- it only takes one captured operative to blow the lid off EVERYTHING -- did you think of all the risks involved in your false flag ops today? Notwithstanding the more imbeciles you involve in operations the greater the chance for operational failures and error. So give it your best lame shot, you are our most effective weapon.

Now isn't that interesting? Google suggests that this video is "disgusting" and was removed -- and YET it only clearly depicted a balaclava-wearing person discharge a weapon at least two feet away from the head of a policeman purported to have been killed by 'terrorists' in Paris -- no blood, no brains, no gore, because there wasn't any period!

There should be ample copies of this video available for download as Google was rather late in deleting and LYING to the public. The video clearly exposes the LIE about the shooting of a policeman in Paris, and if that is a LIE what of the entire staged event?

It should also be remembered that Google's homosexual chairperson, Eric Schmidt, is a regular attendee of Bilderberg meetings -- does it all make sense now?
