

France Suckered Oz Unshaken

Did you notice how Obama avoided mentioning Oz in his recent state of the union (delusion) speech? Obama's script could have been written by a Rothschild or Rockefeller speech writer. That disingenuous black-white man, a Kissinger protege, pledged ongoing perpetual war on Bush's enemy, the noun 'terror,' after citing Paris and other staged extremist attacks; but Obama was very careful not to mention Oz!

Do any of you media wipe-outs know why Obama was careful not to mention Oz and France in the same breath? Because Oz SPONTANEOUSLY supported the Muslim community when all the media, in saturation mode, poured it on indirectly but precisely in the second layer discourse or subtext -- the overt propaganda against the Islamic community was unmistakable but average Aussies saw through it immediately as they did during WWII when 'free' American blacks fighting for their country were treated like shit and summarily executed by white Americans on our soil. Many fights erupted at the time and Aussies always supported the oppressed underdog that is why Obama is a white man and prefers white homosexual lovers.

Sucker the French, Germans and banjo playing American population, you faggot, but risk exposure trying your facile transparent ops in Oz -- here you deal with our CULTURE not our lackey politicians.

All I have to say to finish this piece is, 'onya Oz!
