SKILL and humanity rule here, we fight the evil that has stolen all democratic nations because we can! for all the military might of 'superpowers' the war is won with mathematics and electrons -- the evil powers cannot fight or even challenge what they cannot detect -- such is the nature of digital warfare. the outcome of this war is predetermined -- the day (and night) belong to the most skilled hackers of the UNDERGROUND!

soon the filthy intrigues of evil elites will be exposed/published for the ENTIRE world to see -- and they will have nowhere to go but jail or suicide, such is the nature of their horrendous, unspeakable crimes against humanity.

*[hit them broadly and relentlessly
