

The Lost Art of Government

by stan Wednesday, Mar 4 2015, 9:28pm

international / prose / post

Have you ever wondered why politicians today lack ability; it seems they all, regardless of party stripe, follow the same script? Today's politicians are incapable of making any decision in favour of the democratic majority and a good example today is the latest Oz government, which has bungled everything since stealing office by fraud and lies eighteen months ago. Not only did the government fail miserably, it contemptuously duped the masses to steal office. Yet it remains in power though clearly it is devoid of independent volition, vision and ability.

Tony Abbott and Julia Gillard

The reason is simple, elitist plutocrat Rupert Murdoch installs and un-installs governments and leaders in Australia at will; one puppet leader, Kevin Rudd, actually went for a job interview with Murdoch in New York before gaining his support and ascending to the highest office in the land. After gaining office Rudd was recorded as saying to a colleague that, "once we gain government we won't have to do anything" -- meaning that all decisions and policies will be scripted for them! Rudd later rebelled and began to tax the multi-nationals -- that departure from the script cost him his job, he was unceremoniously stabbed in the back and deposed by another leader that followed the script and ALSO allowed the Americans open access to our ports and permission to build FIVE military bases on our soil as part of their "pivot to Asia," a euphemistic term which means threatening China, Australia's largest trading partner! What that unmandated action really means is that Oz has become a primary nuclear target in the event of a US provoked war with China -- well done unrepresentative puppet politicians!

The latest leader, Tony Abbott, of the conservative party, made promises to Murdoch and the corporate elite prior to the election (recorded) and is now following that published script -- created before the election -- furthermore, corporate lackey Abbott is now attempting to convince the masses that allowing corporations to rape and plunder our resources without paying their due in taxes and applying financial pressure on the vulnerable and debt-burdened population to make up revenue shortfalls, is acceptable. But the public know better, I hope!

Owned corporate puppets, now proven to infect the ranks of both major parties in Oz, clearly do not make good leaders as has been proven since elite servant PM, Paul Keating, de-regulated the banks and surrendered our sovereign currency to speculators on Wall street; the criminal 'market' now determines the value of our currency not the government, which means our sovereignty is lost. And on it goes to inevitable slavery for the masses (who legally/rightfully own the nation) and a mega-wealthy, unrepresentative minority elite ruling Oz and the world.

Jungle Drum Prose/Poetry. <http://jungledrum.lingama.net/news/story-1495.html>