

The Power Principle

by via stacey - ICH Saturday, Mar 21 2015, 9:15pm

international / prose / post

"Simply brilliant - This is probably the best film ever made about American foreign policy." - Spartacus

A gripping, deeply informative account of the plunder, hypocrisy and mass violence of plutocracy and empire; insightful, historically grounded and highly relevant to the events of today.

This documentary is about the foreign policy of the United States. It demonstrates the importance of the political economy, the Mafia principle, propaganda, ideology, violence and force.

It documents and explains how the policy is based on the interest of major corporations and a self-interested minority elite to increase profits and the United States government's own interests in maintaining and expanding its imperialistic influence.

Inside the United States this has been made possible with fear-inducing propaganda of horrible fabricated enemies like 'terrorists', the Soviet Union, communists etc. Propaganda has also created an acceptance of rigged "free markets", "fake democracy", and illusory "freedom."

Externally (and increasingly internally) this has caused massive poverty, suffering, genocide, war, coups, crushed unions, and environmental destruction. This doco is essential viewing for people that pursue real democracy, liberty and freedom.

[Share around.]

<http://www.informationclearinghouse.info/article31417.htm>

Jungle Drum Prose/Poetry. <http://jungledrum.lingama.net/news/story-1515.html>