

Unprovoked Military Aggression in the Middle East - Goodbye rule of Law

by justin Sunday, Mar 29 2015, 10:36pm

international / prose / post

The unprovoked attacks on Yemen (Iran) by US vassals in the region and the mute response of the now obviously partial UN marks a watershed moment in international lawlessness. So many international laws and charters have been breached by this unjustified, lawless attack it defies reason. But that is the point the world has entered a new very obvious, dangerous phase, outright undisguised, gangsterism, where the rule of violence and destruction prevail over civilised law and order – and that spells disaster for the entire WORLD.

If we allow the capo nation, America, to rule via brute force then we as civilised humanity would be the losers – this is not a regional affair as the world is a global entity and everyone would pay the price as the rise of police state methods clearly indicate. The disturbing consequences of State lawlessness are today undeniable, especially in America where the police kill citizens (with impunity) at over 70 times the rate of other western nations. The banker/corporate elites that have captured the US now feel confident enough to impose their unmasked criminal gangsterism on the rest of the world – well the WORLD may have something to say about that, particularly superpowers Russia, China and other highly successful CIVILISED, emerging nations.

It is pointless to moan and groan on about this heinous event SOMETHING MUST BE DONE TO CURTAIL IT – that is the clear imperative if we cherish our freedoms under the ‘law’ and wish to survive in a civilised world, it couldn't be clearer or more urgent.

No nation, person or organisation is above the law, that is how civilised society works, but the unfortunate reality is that capo USA has been absurdly attempting to legalise its criminality over the past 15 years during which it has become the leading civilian killing nation on the planet – law and order indeed!

This latest outrageous attack accompanied by propaganda media in the US to launch an unprovoked attack directly on Iran, clearly indicates the plans and brutal lawless strategies of the USA, which is now a desperate nation with the advent of the AIIB and other nations choosing more constructive alternatives to the “perpetual war” ideology of America.

In view of the fact that the UN and other international legal institutions have done absolutely nothing to date, not even verbally condemn these illegal attacks and demand their immediate cessation, it becomes clear that the matter must be settled by other means as the rule of law MUST be RESTORED if we are to survive as civilised humanity.

You may ‘wonder’ what that supremely effective alternative is and that is the greatest tragedy of all.