Abbott has proven at the G20 that he is incapable of a statesman's stance in international relations, only days after the abhorrent treatment that was contemptuously designed to insult and belittle Australian politicians, notwithstanding the supremely cruel and tortuous effect it had on the executed young men prior to their political executions and their families throughout the entire unnecessarily horrific ordeal, Abbott a now known supreme COWARD and INCOMPETENT, is bending over forwards and offering his arse to the ignorant and primitive Indonesians who, let's face it, detest Australians.

Bill Shorten and Tony Abbott, unrepresentative, spineless lackeys

Recent mainstream articles have exposed new boy president Joko Widodo as a weak puppet of former president Megawati Sukarnoputri who openly dressed him down, and clearly enjoyed the exercise, at a party congress. Widodo sat and endured being belittled but his reputation in international circles is now completely trashed as Megawati left no doubt whatsoever that she is in fact the boss who ordered him to proceed with the executions by openly questioning whether Joko was succumbing to international pressure. The deaths of the unfortunate drug mules was sealed politically not legally or morally in a frenzy of petty schoolyard, populist politics -- earlier Widodo had banned alcoholic consumption and sales in Indonesia allowing only tourists in Hindu Bali access to alcohol at higher prices, clearly a transparent ploy to gain popular Muslim support.

The entire sordid affair over the past few weeks and especially Widodo's ignorant behaviour has become a tragic and pathetic circus of horror and political incompetence not only for Australia but for serving prisoners whose sentences may be arbitrarily overturned and face execution in order for weak president Widodo to play evermore populist politics.

As we all know weak men, are you reading this mass murderer John Howard, resort to spilling blood in order to compensate for their lack of real strength and character and to gain local support and popularity.

Official 'Iron Man' Abbott -- what a pathetic joke -- is the opposite of how the media portrays him, if you thought that lying war criminal Howard, with his head up Bush's arse, was a shameful spectacle, keep your eye on Abbott who is preparing to go one farther. Only days after receiving the most insulting treatment from politically infantile, amateur Indonesian politicians Abbott is ready to kiss Muslim arse, is that the way Australians wish to be portrayed to the international community? I doubt it!

As a recent article on this site suggests Abbott, with hopefully bipartisan support from wimp Shorten, should pursue the former high Indonesian officials for ordering, on record - our communications surveillance station in northern Australia -- the cold blooded murder of five Australian journalists in Balibo in 1975. Re-open and pursue this case gutless Abbott, and uphold Australian integrity and international law regarding war crimes and other crimes against humanity. In the current circumstances that is clearly the optimum course to take as it would either force a political reshuffle in Indonesia or teach Indonesia that sovereign and international law actually count for something not just for political expediency, as Widodo sees it and plays it.

The current regime in Indonesia is now internationally known as inept, sadistic clowns and political incompetents. Nonetheless, it should also be noted that Abbott closed the Balibo case in order to curry favour with Widodo who then promptly shat in Abbott's face for his open display of weakness and submission.

It is clear that Widodo and his party must go and the only effective way to achieve this is via international channels and support - the case against the Balibo murderers offers that avenue and is already won based on incontrovertible extant evidence (SIGS) and witness testimony. So grow a spine Abbott and Shorten and at least try to emulate real statesmen, you disgusting lackey cowards.
