Pravda: Putin Threatens to Release Satellite Evidence of 9/11

How much pressure would it require to force a mouse of a leader to fight back? It seems nothing short of a pre-emptive nuclear strike on Russia, which is now becoming a reality.

Putin, a previously elite 'owned' puppet leader, seems to be making hollow threats; if indeed he has evidence of a 9/11 false flag why wouldn't he kick the stool from under the feet of the mass murdering US, which has conveniently placed a noose around its own neck, too easy? Putin made this threat back in February and we are all still waiting for this known coward to back his hollow threats with action. If real evidence existed and was released it would finish the US as the people would finally be forced to reclaim their Republic.

From Pravda:

Moscow (Pravda): American experts believe that despite the fact that relations between the US and Russia have reached the worst point since the Cold War, Putin has only created minor troubles for Obama. However, analysts believe that this is the “calm before the storm.” Putin is going to hit once, but he’s going to hit hard. Russia is preparing the release of evidence of the involvement of the US government and intelligence services in the September 11 attacks.

The list of evidence includes satellite images.

Published material can prove the US government complicity in the 9/11 attacks and the successful manipulation of public opinion. The attack was planned by the US government, but exercised using her proxy, so that an attack on America and the people of the United States looked like an act of aggression by international terrorist organizations.

The motive for deception and murder its own citizens served US oil interests and the Middle East state corporations.

The evidence will be so convincing that it utterly debunks the official 9/11 cover story supported by the US government.

Russia proves that America is no stranger to using false flag terrorism against its citizens in order to achieve a pretext for military intervention in a foreign country. In the case of “the September 11 attacks,” the evidence will be conclusive satellite imagery.

If successful, the consequences of Putin’s tactics would expose the US government’s secret terrorist policies. The government’s credibility will be undermined and should bring about mass protests in the cities leading to an uprising, according to American analysts..

And as the United States will look on the world political arena? The validity of America’s position as a leader in the fight against international terrorism will be totally undermined giving immediately advantage to rogue states and Islamic terrorists.

The actual development of the situation could be much worse, experts warn.

[The world is still waiting, Mr Putin!]
