

Abbott's Continuing Deceit and his 'new' Budget

by barry Wednesday, May 6 2015, 11:49pm

international / prose / post

All one need do is listen to the distracting garbage his ministers spew endlessly regarding revenue measures, which continue to target the people and ignore tax avoiding multi-nationals, the largest earners and tax avoiders in the land.

Abbott, Rinehart and Murdoch

Who is Abbott trying to kid, not a word, let alone a policy, regarding revenue measures that target Abbott's corporate masters? The besieged people have not lost focus and are not deceived by Abbott and his pathologically lying brigade of duplicitous ministerial scoundrels.

Australia's traditional values require a fair go and fair outcome, targeting those that earn most, multi-national corporations, and lightening the load UNFAIRLY placed on the most vulnerable that earn the least is not a debatable issue, it is an AUSTRALIAN imperative! However, pre-budget leaks and announcements clearly indicate that Abbott CONTINUES to target the people and NOT multi-national CORPORATIONS. The long suffering people contemptuously abandoned by Darwinist Abbott and his conservatives, have had enough of Abbott's feeble, transparent bullshit.

Researchers are urged to compare ratios of government revenue obtained from corporations in the 70's and corporations today - the figures are shocking and sobering and clearly indict the Abbott government for its undemocratic stance in serving elite minority, unrepresentative interests, isn't that right Rupert, Gina, Twiggy Forrest and the rest?

Murdoch's media is at pains to distract the public and portray Abbott's 'new' budget as fair, while REALITY dictates that absolving corporations of their tax responsibilities is as unfair as could be.

When Australians hear and see Abbott restoring revenue from rapacious, polluting, tax avoiding corporations, they may be inclined to listen, however, faith and belief in Abbott's pathologically lying conservative government has been lost forever.