

Budget: it's 'fair' because Abbott says so ...

by cyd Wednesday, May 13 2015, 1:45am

international / prose / post

And as we know Abbott is an unrepentant LIAR and disingenuous clown in the service of the big end of town. The FACT that Abbott has CONTINUED to target pensioners, the vulnerable, average wage earners and citizens by juggling the figures -- taking from Tom to pay Paul -- is obvious but not a major measure to fill the void in REVENUE left by tax avoiding multinationals, yet this budget is "fair", my arse!

'Honest' Tony

How long does it take for the distasteful REALITY of Abbott to sink in? Is Oz becoming so Americanised that it falls for the contemptuous mesmerism of the repetitive LIE, "it's fair, it's fair, it's fair? Blow it out your arse Abbott, you lying, deceitful scumbag! The budget remains an austerity budget in one of the wealthiest per capita nations in the western world. And screaming debt and cuts instead of lost REVENUE, only fools mass media softened brains.

Abbott's second austerity budget is a distraction away from the MASSIVE REVENUE PROBLEM his government faces, which should dominate the discourse for obvious reasons, and that is, for the mass media soporifics, the revenue (hundreds of billions) lost to the scurrilous and immoral tax avoiding strategies of multinational and other large corporate entities; but as over-burdened, long suffering Aussies KNOW, Abbott is loath to upset his masters, he is nothing if not an obedient servant to unrepresentative minority elites, isn't that right, Rupert and Gina?

Abbott should be forced to legislate and recover lost monies NOW, without international interference from vested interests, a simple matter, and implement retrospective measures to cure his revenue woes, but that is not likely in a nation that dutifully follows the corporate mass media's fake and distracting narrative, are you reading this ABC and SBS?

So Tony, Scott and Joe, continue telling Oz 'it's fair' and hopefully you will hypnotise YOURSELVES into calling an early election when your second pathetic and transparent budget is blocked in the Senate. And be very careful to maintain public focus away from the billions you have blown on failed jet fighters (Lockheed Martin) offshore (no local jobs) submarine contracts, searching for MH370 (a Malaysian jetliner) and the millions blown on gifting foreign nations to accept your refugees, which Indonesia will allow to flood Australia due to Abbott's known spinelessness - 'good work' Libs, you pack of LYING, duplicitous, gutless DUNCES. An early election becomes urgent because Abbott and his pack of incompetent cowardly buffoons will not be able to deal with the REAL problems they will soon face.

---

Jungle Drum Prose/Poetry. <http://jungledrum.lingama.net/news/story-1608.html>