

It's Time for Aussies to Refocus ON ABBOTT!

We all know the 'distract the child with a lolly trick,' so why allow lying, unrepresentative and deceitful Tony Abbott to shift our focus from HIM and his thoroughly incompetent (proven) government to matters that hardly impact the nation? By far the most critical matters affecting the overwhelming majority of Aussies are Abbott's UNFAIR policies and his CONSTANT financial attacks on the vulnerable and average Australians. It is now widely known that tax-avoiding multinationals, parasitic big banks and other large unregulated corporations are not shouldering their responsibilities to the nation that they pillaged their collective $TRILLIONS from.

'Honest' Abbott

While Abbott continues to favour the big end of town, which placed him in office, and distract the population away from the fact that Abbott is the real enemy of average Aussies, his corporatist masters are having a field day and laughing all the way to their offshore banks!

That is the hard unaddressed, urgent REALITY that requires IMMEDIATE remedial action NOT the emotive issues which Abbott has been advised to pursue as they act like the proverbial lolly to a child.

Are Aussies as stupid and as easily duped as their mindless, banjo-playing American cousins? I think not! Abbott and his corporate serving government should be relentlessly pursued for the policies that favour rogues and thieves and oppress/disadvantage the people. Abbott is a very well-known LIAR and DECEIVER; do YOU imagine this leopard has changed his spots, obviously not, as Abbott is nothing if not a conservative zealot and fanatically consistent?

Furthermore, he openly displays his utter contempt for the people by his constant FEEBLE efforts to lie and deceive the public. Even the nose-ringed mass media is waking up to the fact. Abbott's TRANSPARENT attempts to make an issue of the ABC over some innocuous comment on one of its programs is a very good example of him DISTRACTING and pursuing irrelevant issues at the cost of what he should be doing - SERVING the MAJORITY of Australians, not its minority corporate and mega-wealthy elite.

Some extremely revealing and informative assessments follow :

After reading the above and assessing the obvious situation for yourself, it becomes plain that Abbott is NEVER to be believed or trusted and every effort should be made to remove him from office, as HE and his incompetent government are clearly the most dangerous threat to Australia and the quality of life of its citizens. The FACT remains, Australia is one of the wealthiest per capita nations in the world yet the people see none of it, furthermore, Abbott is hell bent on taking from the people the little they have!

Additional note:

News has just been released that Abbott has been advised by his consultants to go to an early election as opposition leader Shorten has been exposed as the wet wick he actually is. However, if Abbott takes the bait, it would afford an opportunity for the people to flood both houses with independent REAL representatives and rid the nation of the evil influence of the two corporate-owned major party dog and pony show. We sincerely hope that Abbott calls an early election as the PEOPLE would have an opportunity to RESTORE real REPRESENTATIVE DEMOCRACY!
