Please be clear, the title intends no racial invective.

I am astonished the American alternative media constantly refers to Barack Obama as 'president' Obama, when in fact his real name is PUPPET Obama, as was puppet Bush and puppet Clinton before him. Obama is under the complete control of necon war mongers and the mega-wealthy corporate and banker elite, as were puppet presidents before him. It is immaterial who the next president will be as whoever it is will either be a puppet or suffer a fatal accident if not.

Another perceptive flaw is the widely held belief that Obama is a black man when in fact race is not determined by skin colour today -- Obama is as white as the people that control him and will control the next PUPPET president.

One expects a little more realism and ACCURACY from the American 'alternative' media, which is about as alternative as the other side of the same coin.
