

The Myth of WMD - bullshit first answer for it after the illegal Act

An official American report has recently been released confirming what UN weapons inspectors, Hans Blix and Richard Butler clearly stated before the illegal invasion of Iraq - there were NO WMD in Iraq!

But did this FACT stop the criminal corporatist elite's invasion of Iraq and the human holocaust that followed - not in the least, why? Simply due to the fact that the US and other western 'democratic' governments have been owned by the corporate elite for decades - now wake to that REALTY before the same elite propels the world into a nuclear conflict with Russia and China, as they cannot tolerate the idea of any other nation competing with their demonic military and economic grip on the world.

Who could forget the feeble lies of corporatist lackeys Cheney, Bush, Blair, Howard (of Australia) and Rumsfeld, the latter of which made the astonishingly feeble statement to the press, "we know Saddam has WMD because he just has," believe it or not, notwithstanding that statement insults a 12 year old's intelligence!

The pre-planned invasion of Iraq to appropriate its oil resource for mega-oil corporations went full speed ahead supported of course by the elite-owned mass media/propaganda apparatus, regardless of the facts and feeble lies. And the result continues to haunt the world today, as all US/NATO invaded nations are today failed states and the breeding ground of very angry terrorist groups. Particularly Iraq and Libya - well done criminal corporatist and banker elites! However, these nefarious elites, which have demonstrated TO THE WORLD their complete disregard for human life in favour of profit or a barrel of oil, are alive and terrified of the prospect that JUSTICE will prevail against them and their political moron lackeys.

The evidence is overwhelming against these nefarious elites and their political lackeys, all that is required is the WILL to JUSTICE. Failing that 'will,' by the global population, then the future is already planned for you, prepare to be vaporised as the mega-wealthy psychopaths that own western governments actually imagine they are able to 'win' a nuclear conflict with other nuclear superpowers, and I would remind everyone, there is no such thing a limited nuclear war.

The elite's mass media/propaganda apparatus is now pushing and softening the public, as it did prior to the illegal Iraq invasion, to the ultimate nightmare nuclear scenario, and if previous results are any indication, prepare to die! Or would you rather live in denial AGAIN and believe other feeble, Rumsfeld-type LIES by Pentagon puppets today that dupe no-one?
