

The Only Way to Unite Humanity

by jess Tuesday, Jul 21 2015, 11:09am

international / prose / post

There is only one force capable of uniting humanity, it cuts through every obstacle to reign supreme, it is not an ideology, 'ism' or any prescribed formula, it is not to be found in books, temples, churches or any man-made structure. It may be inferred by great art, visual, textual and musical, however, it is only found and experienced in/as unconditional Love.

I care not about accusations of sentimentality or hippie comparisons simply because it is as true a fact today as it was when great social reformers announced it out loud to the masses, Jesus and Gautama Buddha, particularly.

If infinite creation is indeed continuous and inherently perfect – proven by infinity itself – then that creation MUST have a driving, perfect principle by which it creates and continues forever and that abiding principle must necessarily be invested in all creation including human beings – that principle is unquestionably, Love.

All infinite existence is a manifestation of that Love and the harmony and peace it bestows – the universe came into being as an expression of Love and continues by virtue of that Love, everything emanates from it and is sustained by it.

As a writer I am acutely aware of the limits of prosaic language and I truly wish I could transmit the essence of 'that' I now encode in finite text, however, rather than resort to poetry or other poetic devices, as they are more able than standard text to transmit intangibles, I hope plain language and the inherent knowledge you were born with provides enough impetus for you to realise what you already know.

"The universe came into BEING for LOVE'S sake; for love's sake it continues forever.

Would those that hate continue to divide, LIE, murder and destroy, or hope to prevail against the INFINITE power that saturates all existence?

Every being is UNIQUE but related by kind. No one has the right to impose their views/values or prescribe behaviours for another. No one is above or below another – we are each SOVEREIGN Beings, EQUAL by virtue of the fact we are ALL CREATED. We observe the LAW of LOVE Only. Widely should that known!

The One constant Law is Love; there is no other universal Law – karma issues from the embrace or rejection of Love!

Follow your course, NEVER the course of another. Those who lead [others] are as foolish as those that follow; both are enslaved in misery and delusion. YOUR WILL and only YOUR WAY pursue; therein lies fulfilment.

There are no Gods but man; ALL Gods have been created by man -- are not the created secondary to their creator?

We shine as stars and move FREELY across a borderless earth. We reject the LIES of murderers and thieves; so EASILY are they known!

In LOVE we move and in JOY we create. We are ONE - One UNDIVIDED, heterogeneous HUMAN FAMILY -- accept it or not.

'We are ONE' shall be the salutation of a new age; and that AGE is NOW!"

It should be plain to all that Love is life and leads to continuing creation; hate is the anti-thesis of love and it hardly requires stating that hate leads to division, conflict, destruction and death.

Reject hate and destruction. Release your Love and restore harmony and peace to this/your world.

Jungle Drum Prose/Poetry. <http://jungledrum.lingama.net/news/story-1740.html>