

The Fag President May be Marked for the Dust Bin

Let's call a spade a spade, Obama prefers men and his favourite sexual engagement is having his black cock sucked by WHITE males -- very revealing indeed!

But that is a secondary issue, as informed people everywhere are fully aware that western leaders -- ALL of them -- are puppets to global Bankers and Plutocrats.

Presidential debates are pure entertainment, I think my 4yo is more political than those MINDLESS, slogan-saturated and catch phrase weighted so-called 'debates' -- only in mindless America! Who 'wins' these ridiculous debates is irrelevant -- informed people everywhere know that shadowy monied elites win every time, but the charade must go on for the sake of fake democracy.

I am now beginning to wonder whether the undisguised comments aimed at Obama, Bolton called him "limp wristed," while Romney accused him of "passivity," were not indicative of behind the scenes machinations and a plan to install Romney as the next puppet President.

Has Obama become a liability to ruling elites? It is highly likely. Obama has earned the ire of many previous supporters that wouldn't piss on him if he were on fire, today.

Whereas Romney is a known rogue and pathological liar who has all the integrity of an Arabian whore; but he presents well and he's heterosexual! Romney also belongs to the multi-millionaire business class and he's not about to come down hard on his fellow cohorts in crime and fraud.

Time will tell but it ain't lookin' good for the black fag.

Another extraordinary development relating to these debates is that they have captured the American mainstream (to be expected) AND alternative media, both camps are running stories on the debates as though they actually mean something -- give the world a break!
