

“Foxes have holes and birds of the air have nests BUT ...”

I am not a religionist, God forbid (lol) though I have read the New Testament four times, principally as a manual for social reform and the elimination of corrupt social hierarchies, however, I do not completely dismiss the text only the obvious fantasy/theological aspects. So I would share a favourite saying of the mythic Christ: “Foxes have holes and birds of the air have nests, but the son of man has no place to lay his head [to rest].” (Matt. 8:20) The implication being that Jesus was otherworldly.

Now to put a tangential slant on the above for our age: ‘Automobiles are fuelled by gas, appliances run on electricity BUT western governments are fuelled and run on constant bullshit!’ The implication being that the masses are gutless morons for allowing an easily defeated, clearly self-serving criminal minority to deceive and enslave them OPENLY.

So what else could be said based on the above tragic social fact, reams covering almost every aspect of human life/society BUT it would be to no avail as the moronic masses are clearly beyond redemption. Not one person I have ever spoken to believes that politicians speak the truth, in fact most people state that politicians are the worst liars that society has ever produced, YET the masses allow themselves to be ruled, governed and constantly screwed by these minority serving despicable liars, deceivers and sociopaths - need I offer more proof that the masses are a lost cause and that all the writings/entreaties of commentators, independent journalists and truth tellers amounts to pissing in the wind, as the only force that moves/mobilises the masses effectively is obviously LIES. Tell the truth and you are effectively ignored, or at best treated as a curiosity to be read or listened to only to break the boredom and quiet desperation of a slave’s life.

Consider Christianity, it only became a world religion when it was forced down people’s throats under the threat of the sword by the Emperor Constantine and his deluded pathological mother whom he murdered, as he murdered any ‘Christian’ that didn’t toe his Nicean line. History is replete with descriptions of this draconian sociopath and his mother. Islam also spread rapidly via intimidation and the sword, surrender, be converted or die. So what do we learn from these historical examples? If you wish to control the masses intimidate and oppress them and keep them in a state of perpetual psychological fear/anxiety.

Now, morons and wimps, what is being inflicted on the masses today that diverges from the brutally simple formula - nothing, it’s the same as it has always been regarding crowd control, only the elite players have changed but one thing has never changed, ruling elites are all sociopaths and treat the masses as an expendable resource, and the masses are easily ruled with intimidation and LIES, how does it feel, you gutless wonders?

I have nothing more to say for the simple reason it’s not worth the trouble, so cringe, cower and cringe some more, and be sure to slave for the man and jump when he says jump, woof!

Fair fuckin’ dinkum, not worth a pinch of shit, a slave is truly fit for his/her chains.
