And it's devastating. What other era in modern history has seen such apathetic compliance to the most draconian intrusions on privacy, the erosion of liberties and rights which our forefathers fought and died to attain and preserve, all forfeited with cowardly, reckless abandon by modern generations - what the fuck is wrong with you people?

The 9/11 false flag was not only utilised to give US presidents carte blanc and monarchical powers to invade other nations, assassinate their leaders and steal their resources it was utilised to terrorise and contain local populations.

Take a look at the statistics, how many people die from terrorist attacks compared to smoking or car accidents even lightning strikes which kill more people annually than so-called terrorist orchestrated 'useful idiot' attacks or worse, government orchestrated black ops. Ask yourself the obvious questions and you will arrive at the conclusion that everything you hear from our so-called political representatives is complete hogwash; does anyone really doubt these political clowns are installed and serve minority elite interests that tremble at the prospect that social action would see them tried hanged or serving life sentences for their horrendous crimes against humanity? We outnumber these criminals over 10 million to one, YET the masses are paralysed by bullshit issuing from our legislators and treasonous governments - it's all so obvious it's ridiculous that anyone could deny the starkly absurd and tragic realities of today.

So what are modern generations doing to restore their freedoms and rights, cringing and texting to distract themselves from their cowardice and social paralysis? Not only have younger generations failed their forefathers who fought to the death for freedom they have failed themselves and there is no more tragic failure than to fail oneself.

What a pack of gutless losers, you all make me sick allowing yourselves to be duped and herded like sheep fit only for the slaughter or the slow miserable death of underpaid jobs that serve and maintain corporate fortunes and elite criminals, which have utilised the wealth YOU made for them by subverting every democracy on earth.

This tiny global minority are no match for the population of one tiny nation let alone the entire global population of current slaves that could gain their freedom and restore their lives and nations overnight if they possessed the will; but alas, divide and conquer prevails not only against targeted resource rich foreign nations but alienation and social disconnect plagues local populations, all brought to you courtesy of your smart monitoring and surveillance devices, which YOU allowed to be utilised to intrude on your rights and privacy, you spineless, good for nothings - what the fuck are your brains and spines made of, jelly, certainly not the grit your fathers' possessed?

In fact if any of you spineless gastrics are reading this site, fuck off, I don't want a bar of you, none of you are worth a pinch of shit.

And I couldn't give a flying fuck about popularity - truth has always served me well. I write because I must -- how very sweet it is!
