

Metatron's Cube

international / poetry / post circles with perimeters intersecting centres tightly interconnected reveal a mathematical magic, within two dimensional circles resides a three dimensional cube which reveals the essence of our dimension and its inherent harmony disconnected humanity forms no meaningful pattern, chaos prevails -- kinetic existence is unified harmoniously and dances it marvels before us humanity remains disconnected, outside the beauty, wonder and bliss of nature's perfect harmony is it sustainable to exist outside life's benign, harmonious moving pattern? drowning, ignorant hordes should not fight for the rocks that would finish them harmony's pattern admits no imperfections disharmony exists outside perfection and is of no consequence, except to those that choose to exist in its realm and die in chaos,

hell
