

Nothing New in the 'News'

by justin Sunday, Sep 6 2015, 1:37am

international / prose / post

There is no new/s today, it's been the same for the past fifteen years, some would say centuries. Minority elites terrorise, distract and 'manage' the lobotomised masses via their communications apparatuses or mass media. The masses believe the propaganda and remain neutered and fit for the slaughter.

Governments squeal austerity for the masses while blowing billions on ludicrous pursuits such as the F-35 proven flying lemon, searching for a missing airliner in the wrong location and when a piece of wreckage is found in the right location, around Diego Garcia, dismiss it as not part of the missing plane. The list of utter crap is endless yet the masses swallow it, and accuse anyone that researches the truth as a conspiracy theorist, well done the mass media CFR propaganda arm.

The so-called alternative news media follows mainstream news rather than develop its own narratives and discourses that focus on freeing the slaves and REAL alternatives - there is nothing 'alternative' about reactive 'news!'

Meanwhile, those that spell out simple, OBVIOUS realities are ignored; for instance, the core definition of terrorism is killing innocent civilians and destroying the property of others -- who leads the world in this deplorable activity? The USA of course - plain as day -- yet REALITY washes over the lobotomised masses like water off a duck's back and so the farce and tragedy continue unabated, as it has done for decades.

Titillation and 'newstainment' is the order of the day, the truth barely rates a mention and when it does it is sufficiently distorted and neutralised so its impact is reduced to almost zero.

Almost the entire world is aware that Bush, Blair and Howard of Australia, lied their nations into an illegal disastrous war yet these criminals remain at large, who's to blame, the neutered masses of course? Do moralists and those people with a sense of justice rise in passionate anger over the travesties committed by our lying, treasonous governments, not a chance, do the invertebrate masses expect criminals to arrest themselves and stand in judgement of their OBVIOUS heinous crimes - give me a break!

And so the future is easily read, as easily as George read it in the past, no crystal ball required, simply read the propaganda and you will see in the primary and subtext, WAR between superpowers, as the global economy twitches its last. But is that imminent catastrophe presented soberly in the new/s no, and if it rates a mention it is presented as necessary in order to keep the slaves safe.

Climate change threatens to disrupt the entire planet with impacted millions fleeing famine, drought and starvation, today's thousands of fleeing refugees will account for nothing in the near future, but is the world prepared, not a hope?

The news and distraction industry feeds the masses tits, cunts and orchestrated, overblown 'terror' threats, every manner of irrelevant distraction and outright LIE. Now fault the above reality if you are able, but I already know the response, as an active aware consciousness is required before any rational assessment and action is possible.

🔊 It's good Newsweek - Hedgehoppers Anonymous

Jungle Drum Prose/Poetry. <http://jungledrum.lingama.net/news/story-1839.html>