In the desperate hope that bombing a sovereign nation, embroiled in a civil war, without a request from its legitimate government would enhance his tattered image, Tony Abbott, a reprehensible liar, duplicitous deceiver and supreme incompetent dunce has hearkened to the advice of his short-term thinking media consultants and has involved Australia in yet another international illegality.

Partial ABC journalist/interviewer, Leigh Sales

Questioned by conservative favouring interviewer on the ABC, Leigh Sales, Abbott responded to a question with his usual obfuscation and evasiveness. Sales asked, "what is your STRATEGY [my emphasis] and what is the outcome you hope to achieve?" Abbott of course PREDICTABLY evaded the most crucial part of the question "STRATEGY," simply because he has none, and began spouting Washington 'regime change' propoganda but the 'how' was not addressed.

Regardless of Abbott's scripted answer and evasion and Sales' FAILURE to pursue and nail Abbott on 'strategy,' a few simple facts blow the entire political manoeuvre out of the water. And these are, as legal brain Geoffrey Robertson so clearly put it on Q&A, bombing alone solves nothing, he cited the London blitz during the Second World War and asked rhetorically did that Nazi strategy weaken the will of the British to fight? Of course it didn't, it actually galvanised the population into action, as history verifies, notwithstanding that the US and NATO have been bombing for fifteen years in North Africa and the Middle East and what is the result, a FIASCO, destabilised States, the needless deaths of millions of innocent civilians and massive civilian displacement, which has resulted in the refugee crisis in Europe.

Have allied forces learned anything from history or their recent bombing debacles - and we shouldn't forget the indiscriminate carpet bombing of Indo-China, which resulted in America losing that illegal, civilian killing war? So what has America and its allied vassals learned - NOTHING! Dunce Abbott hopes that his criminal and effectively meaningless gesture would somehow salvage an unsalvageable public image.

It would have been a simple matter to nail Abbott with hard FACTS, a journalist's job, but Sales, well known as a right wing sympathiser gave LYING dunce Abbott an easy ride. Furthermore, independent MP Andrew Wilkie, stated the plain truth, which was known to Sales' newsroom, Abbott's stunt is purely for political gain; Abbott's position will remain forever in the gutter, Aussies simply have long memories unlike their lobotomised American cousins.

History and on-the-ground reality dictate that bombing alone AGGRAVATES the situation as it kills civilians and leads to social chaos without affecting extremist fighters in the least, and the bulk of the Australian public know it!

The opposition shadow foreign minister gave a coherent response and stated that the only solution to the US/NATO created crisis is political, not military. But of course Abbott's consultants have nothing but losing formulas to offer loser Abbott, however, the public money ($millions) they are paid is not entirely wasted as their inept efforts are assisting in Abbott's downfall - plain to see!

And a final comment to Ms Sales, the next time you encounter Abbott why not simply ask to suck his cock, you biased, disgraceful excuse of an impartial, effective interviewer.

In view of the above and all the material available in the ABC newsroom, Aussies would dearly love to know what Abbott's STRATEGY - the mechanics of HOW -- actually is Ms Sales, though informed aware Aussies know from experience he has none. Abbott and his conservative team of dunces are formula driven, gimmicky, lying and duplicitous political FRAUDS, they couldn't govern a school fete.

Another 'little' overlooked fact is that Jihadi fighters never offer a clear target they always emesh themselves in civilian areas for protection. But why mention innocent civilian casualties to desperate losers like Abbott? Your right wing sympathies hang out like dog's balls, Ms Sales.
