Let's see if we can figure out why?

The outcome of the presidential election is the USA is assured; an old adage applies -- 'a change of leaders is the joy of fools!'

Will George W Obama be installed for a second term or will Mitt Romney take his place? Is a redundant question, as neither would possess any independent power of determination. The Executive and Congress are owned by the plutocrats -- they win every election!

An unrepresentative monied elite with mountains of useless corruption money, which they print on demand, has taken over most of the critical political and regulatory institutions in western societies.

Voting in a 2 horse -- same stable -- race does not remedy the situation, it merely perpetuates the LIE; however, marching on political capitals and either demanding real REPRESENTATION or seizing power is the MOST EFFECTIVE means of restoring democracy and the rights of the MAJORITY! Government of the people for the people LITERALLY is representative government or real democracy. Now that isn't too difficult to understand, is it? Your M-O-V-E!
