

Preventative Crime and Inept Policing in Australia

Murdoch rags are in full sensationalist swing over the tragic death of an accountant working for the NSW police. The Daily Sensationalist (Telegraph) is portraying the perpetrator, an obviously disturbed impressionable, deluded, underage youth, as a “terror gunman” but clearly the perpetrator was far from a man responsible for his own actions, but why let a rational perspective get in the way of sensationalist news and reporting when the bottom line is PROFIT, isn't that right Mr Murdoch, who incidentally should be arrested for incitement to cause community unrest and perhaps violent retaliatory action from the morons that read his rags.

Deputy Police Commissioner Burn

The mass media hounds covering the latest associated police raids were rightly pelted with eggs, there are no illusions in the broader educated Australian community who is really responsible for extremist unrest and who supports, with beat-ups and hysteria, terrorism world-wide – again, the responsible nefarious party is RUPERT MURDOCH a member of the notorious CFR and a plutocrat that imagines he is God as he has successfully made and unmade numerous Oz leaders since his successful attack on democratically elected leader and Statesman, Gough Whitlam.

I should not be required to remind the media that it is obliged to SERVE the community with SOBER, FACTUAL REPORTING AND ANALYSIS, not propaganda, sensationalism and outrageous beat-ups that serve the interests of men like Murdoch. Indeed, the current unelected Oz PM Malcolm Turnbull, once referred to Murdoch as a “demented plutocrat” but quickly refrained from further truthful attacks on psychopath Murdoch, as Turnbull is acutely aware that plutocrat Murdoch, an un-prosecuted nefarious propagandist responsible for the deaths of millions of innocent civilians world-wide, is able to undermine his current coveted position as PM. Also, I need not remind Murdoch how the interests he works for destroyed Aristotle Onassis by targeting/murdering his son by tampering with the controls of his private aeroplane. The same could easily occur to Murdoch's off-spring, which would bring an end to his family media empire -- Murdoch is now playing against powerful international powers -- but this is not the primary concern of this article so, to return to the topic, inept, media-enslaved, Australian police.

In her obligatory media press conference following the latest raids on ‘terror suspects,’ Deputy Commissioner Catherine Burn, stated:

“We know some of the people we are now interested in are people that have come under notice previously in relation to Operation Appleby ... But it was a sad reality that police couldn't be everywhere at all time[s].

Today's raids were a direct result of Friday's murder out the front of police headquarters and had not been in the planning before the 'terror attack.' [Not plain murder.]

“This is a clear indication of our determination to actually find out who murdered Curtis Cheng and to take all necessary action that we possibly can.” [My emphasis and brackets.]

Again, I should not be required to inform police that their primary DUTY/task is to PREVENT CRIME, and safeguard the community not allow monitored suspects to commit crime as occurred in Martin Place and Parramatta. This task police were once trained to accomplish as former NSW Special Branch (now unfortunately defunct) detectives demonstrated by monitoring and identifying Croatian fascists training in the bush and brazenly bombing their opposition targets in George Street Sydney in the 70's. NSW Police then liaised with PM Whitlam who immediately and forever put an end to this scourge by deporting these real terrorists back to the country of their origin where they were immediately dealt with by the legitimate government, which expressed gratitude to the Australian leader for his decisive and wise actions. Croatian terrorist activity which had been a scourge under conservative Australian governments, as Croatians traditionally support conservatives, immediately ceased in Australia when faced with a government that would not tolerate such activity and didn't require the votes and support of known extremist fascists. Today however, conservative governments exploit 'terrorism' for political gain, as is so patently obvious throughout the conservative WORLD!

I would also remind deputy dunce commissioner Burn, that police are not required to be “everywhere all the time,” they are only REQUIRED to gather intelligence, identify and target an extreme MINORITY of criminals in the broader community. However, her revealing incredibly stupid statement requires no further criticism from me, as ONCE AGAIN the police have compromised themselves. Though I would add that in contrast to today's technologically spoilt police - sweeping surveillance laws - police of the past accomplished effective police work by following traditional detective practices, which again highlights the inept lepers that populate our regulatory services today. There simply are no excuses for not being able to prevent murderous crimes from organised groups, as today's surveillance laws make the job extremely easy. Shame on all Australian police and intelligence DUNCES; Martin Place is the most appalling example of failures to prevent preventable crime and the Parramatta incident follows suit.

I would conclude by stating that more attention should be paid to prevention and traditional policing methods than media 'appearances.' The media is not always compliant, Murdoch's rags being the sole exception -- real, honest reporting/media is a two-edged sword as this piece clearly exemplifies. Note the public statement made by former conservative leader Abbott, “our police are the best police in the world,” my arse!
