With that reality emphatically stated by Putin to the ENTIRE WORLD over recent months in various venues, most notably the UN GA, America stands naked as it is, a bumbling nest of liars, delusionists, lunatics, gross INCOMPETENTS and other assorted mass murdering psychopaths that have no idea what to do now that their propaganda/mesmerising balloon has been burst.

America now attempts to face the hard reality of its searing hypocrisy and criminality regarding illegal invasions, bombings, innumerable criminal activities abroad and at home and of course supporting terrorists (al-Qaeda) it once deemed a threat to the world – notwithstanding the very real threat of a nuclear exchange with Russia if it once again, though this time plain for EVERYONE to see, attempts to create some pretext or another to confront Russia militarily – Turkey would assist -- for the offence of targeting CIA trained and vassal supported terrorists, namely al-Qaeda by any other name, which organisation was always a CIA creation, isn't that right, Mr 'confront Russia and precipitate WWII' Brzezinski? And for your demented information, the game was NEVER 'chess,' as that game requires skill and intelligence, it was and has always been 'bluff poker,' AND Russia has just called your/America's BLUFF – choke on it!

But please, do your demented best to convince Obama that direct confrontation is required to 'save face' and pursue your criminal agenda, AND after that monumental miscalculation allow China to squeegee what's left of the USA and Russia and take over the world with EASE, Sun Tzu style, you clearly demented dunce. And to think you have a Slavic background and should know that Slavs for millennia have perfected strategies and tactics for defeating stronger forces (Napoleon, Ottomans and Nazis) and other bumbling, OVEREXTENDED, would be aspiring empires. Yea, Zig, bring on WWII! Do it for China's sake, you MORON!

The world is now viewing starkly NAKED America and what a tiny little dick and empty head it has!
