

Abandoned

international / poetry / post my muse has abandoned me what will i do for cerebral sex, should i wait patiently for her return? she always returns tho without notice -- in the meantime i may be forced to settle for the physical variety, a very poor substitute perhaps she is attending other poets or is off on some wild sapphic tryst, she shows no favour to gender but more likely she hasn't left me at all -- it may be i have simply lost my way and dulled my senses with mundane and other meaningless worldly matters

yes, i feel her approaching in the nick of time, in desperation i retrieved the number of a tedious physical convenience tho fortunately i didn't press call
