Misinformation informs us that slavery is all but eliminated in the world today, however, all one need do to appreciate REALITY is take a good look at the widest wealth disparity since the time of the Pharaohs to understand that the majority are slaves. On what basis is the less than 1% able to lord over the 99% or multitude? Answer: their stolen (fraud and exploitation) WEALTH and their unbridled avarice, which enable the minority RULING elite to exploit the masses while maintaining, via their privately owned media, the false notion that we are free!

Now, assess your so-called 'freedom,' you are forced into financial DEBT at a very early age and consequently forced to work for the wealthy elite most of your life to repay that debt, which is now passed down to the next generation, such is the financial oppression of the average working slave. No-one is able to justify someone receiving $billions/year in income and another working for $15/hour, or per month in many cases. Where is the equity? Disappeared into the pockets and machinations of rogues and thieves, that's where?

However, the perplexing aspect of it all is that the OVERWHELMING MAJORITY ACCEPT THEIR UNFAIR LOT TODAY, which is historically UNPRECEDENTED, as the oppressed and abused slaves of the past demanded their fair share and freedom from oppression, if they didn't receive it they simply eliminated minority oppressors with the sheer forces of numbers, as no person or criminal minority ruling elite is able to withstand the demands and actions of the overwhelming MAJORITY, which remains the most powerful social force in existence. History is replete with instances of slaves from various cultures rebelling against the oppression of minority ruling elites and gaining their freedom.

Today the chains of slavery are not as tangible as the chains of old, nevertheless, they bind as efficiently, money in its digital and toilet paper form, created at the press of button by ruling elites, is more effective than chains, as it gives the impression we have liberty, however, the opposite is true, the surveillance capability of ruling elites today allows them to locate any individual at will and monitor all private and other communications - LOL - if that is freedom then you seriously need to see a psychiatrist.

Consider for a few minutes the ruse of OWNING (Reserve Banking Cartel) money printing presses and digital finances, which are even less tangible than paper money, surely if ownership of the means of creating money 'shackles' were not in the hands of a tiny minority that MINORITY would be deprived of their means of power - this is not rocket science. Yet the MAJORITY accept their abused and unfair status as slaves in modern societies. Why? Misinformation/lies and propaganda, the 'naturalisation' of myth or fantasy and modern technological shackles (smartphones etc), all of which spell out the grim REALITY of modern SLAVERY.

The tragedy is not the means of harnessing, monitoring and controlling the masses as a resource, it is the fact that the masses are completely MESMERISED by elite owned propaganda/disinformation apparatuses - so simply WAKE UP to the current REALITY and you would have taken your first step to real FREEDOM. Who knows, an aware consciousness may prove the most efficient means of liberation today, notwithstanding it would prove fatal for the lying criminal elites that have for far too long held OUR WORLD captive.
