First consider the fact that ISIS is largely comprised of ignorant, inbred, barbaric fanatics with minimal skills yet they sprang into existence, jack-in-box style, overnight to take large swathes of Syria's and Iraq's sovereign territory while Obama sat in his armchair smoking; what did the 30,000 strong, modern equipped, Pentagon/CIA trained, compliant Iraqi regular army do when confronted by a very few thousand underequipped ISIS fighters in Mosul, which they could have wiped their arses with, CONVENIENTLY drop their modern weapons (unheard of) and RUN – give reason and the obvious a break!

ISIS with their fleet of new Toyotas

Now consider that ISIS has captured and is running numerous oil wells and refinery infrastructures, where did that expertise come from, ads on the internet? NO, it was supplied by the US and its Gulf State allies; furthermore, Washington has been OVERTLY arming and providing material support to KNOWN terrorists on the ground, which action defies reason as al-Qaeda and their affiliates were recently regarded by the USA as a threat to civilisation. BUT now the US, Israel and Gulf State vassals train, arm and support these homicidal maniacs, give basic 2+2 logic a break!

Now consider that ISIS is estimated to make $50million/month from its oil sales – BUT to WHOM does it sell that oil and how is it safely ferreted out of the country? Through NATO nations of course, especially Turkey – and YOU don't smell a rat/RUSE – well, I suggest you get a new nose and brain which is able to add 2+2. Fair dinkum, the entire charade is OBVIOUS, notwithstanding the advertised plan to redraw maps of the Middle East, which demented neocon plan, General Wesley Clarke, who in a fit of patriotism (he has since recanted), exposed to the entire WORLD.

Ask yourself where that often publicised, ISIS fleet of NEW Toyota trucks came from? Do you imagine Baghdadi flew to Tokyo and cut a deal? Get a fuckin' grip, I do not know why I bother sometimes. The USA, Israel and Gulf State vassals are behind the entire bloody charade, blind Freddy can see!

Now, as any western military person well knows any modern army could wipe out ISIS and other terrorist groups in the Middle East in no time, AS RUSSIA IS DOING AS I WRITE, however, what is the USA and its lackey States doing? Overtly supporting terrorists on the ground – even the mainstream news covers this appalling reality; so morons you have no excuses for YOUR complicity in failing to arrest and hold to account Pentagon, CIA and Washington officials for the gross illegality of supplying “material support to terrorists,” notwithstanding the horrendous chaos they have created and innocent blood they have spilled – it’s that fuckin’ horribly real and simple to remedy!
