

The Hyper-costly Absurdity of Offshore Refugee Processing

The latest news from our desperate and thoroughly incompetent conservative government is that it wishes to negotiate another – 40 million taxpayer dollars to Cambodia to resettle 5 refugees – FAILED, expensive deal to offshore refugees, but this time with undeveloped, Central Asian Kyrgyzstan -- what next, outer Mongolia? At this stage it may prove far more beneficial for Australia to resettle the entire conservative government, their incompetence is now made plain for all citizens to see.

Immigration Minister, Peter 'Abbott' Dutton

To date offshoring refugees has cost Australia HUNDREDS of millions of dollars, which fact governments have been at pains to hide from the public, as they, in their simplistic understanding imagine that “stopping the boats” wins elections regardless of COST! NOT SO, if Australia was aware of the total cost to date it would spew, as this money, estimated in the hundreds of $millions is desperately needed for essential infrastructure projects, education and health services. This clearly over the top WASTE indicates without doubt that the current Turnbull government is incompetent to the EXTREME for reasons which are OBVIOUS; it falsely imagines (conservative disconnect) that the ‘stop the boats’ simplistic SLOGAN wins elections, notwithstanding that recently DUMPED former leader Tony Abbott made a thorough imbecilic arse of himself in London by touting his imaginary hyper-costly (failed) ‘successes’ in this regard, however, the bright side is dunce Abbott is only compromising himself and NOT the nation.

The ‘new’ Turnbull government foolishly retains many Abbott-minded ministers too stupid to realise that Abbott was ousted for very REAL reasons, not least, he was a transparent, duplicitous LIAR and thorough INCOMPETENT – Dutton, Cormann and Morrison clearly ‘clang’ with the new tone and vision Turnbull hopes to sell to the nation. Well, good luck Malcolm, cos you’ll get nowhere with political appointments such as the three fossils above, who have not changed one (Abbott) iota.

Furthermore, I would refer to JFK regarding secrecy policies, in this case hiding government incompetence regarding the inability to deal constructively and effectively with refugees and the torturous and inhumane treatment they are subjected to; “The very word “secrecy” is repugnant in a free and open society; ..” – have we got it now, Mr DO NOTHING, full of shit, paralysed, Turnbull?

It doesn't take a genius to realise that refugees should be sent to regional areas and put to work to pay their way while they are being processed, farmers constantly complain of the shortage of seasonal workers. It is also a humane proposal as working is a human privilege and right, the removal of which is utilised by totalitarian regimes as a form of torture, notwithstanding it creates less trouble as happy people are very easy to deal with.

Wake up Malcolm, you and your party are intoxicated on the polls but come crunch time, and hopefully with a new dynamic Labor leader who has PRESENCE, you may be confronted with hard reality. Are you reading this you paralysed Labor dunderheads, it is immaterial whether Shorten is competent or not, his is CLEARLY unable to sell himself as he has no presence whatsoever, deputy leader is a perfect position for him, either that or face a loss at the next federal poll. 'Do nothing, full of shit,' disconnected, elitist Turnbull is easily VANQUISHED by a competent leader that possesses all the NECESSARY qualities. If you really are a true Labor man Bill, stand aside for the good of the Party and take the deputy position, in which you could continue to contribute and excel. You would do wonders for yourself and the Party if you did.
